

1905, which was done on the return of the prison from the Department of Justice on February 1, 1906. War Department Circular No. 12, March 26, 1915, changed the name of the Military Prison to be The United States Disciplinary Barracks. On September 21, 1929, the Disciplinary Barracks was turned over to the Department of Justice.

The Federal Penitentiary

The Federal Penitentiary, which was established by the Attorney-General on the Fort Leavenworth Reservation in 1895 is still active.

Records. 1844-1941. 461 ft.

Records of the post: letters sent, 1844-52, 1858-62, 1865-67, 1870-1907; endorsements, 1858-59, 1867-85, 1901-06; registers of letters received, 1864-70, 1879-82, 1884-1909; document file, 1858-1919 (with index cards, 1914-19 and record cards, 1909-19); telegrams sent, 1890-94, 1901-07; register of telegrams received, 1901-05; telegrams received, 1883-1908; orders, 1856-78, 1881-1919, including those of the Artillery School of Practice, 1860-61, U. S. Forces in Kansas, 1857-60, U. S. Forces at Independence, 1862-66, and post journal of events, 1864; record of courts martial, 1878-84, 1890-1908; record of buildings at Fort Leavenworth compiled, 1905-10; photograph album showing needed repairs, 1922; blueprints of buildings on the post, 1917-18; records of the Officers' Examining Board, 1908-12; records of the rifle range including endorsements, and scorebook, 1879-80; reports of prisoners, 1869-96, 1899-1902; record of garrison prisoners to be released, 1903-06; report of citizen prisoners, 1863-64; officers' duty rosters, 1889-1907; record of deserters, 1905-11; record of officers' school, 1902-05; record of Quartermaster employees, 1882-1912; muster rolls, 1862-1917; post and regimental returns, 1855-1919; census of the post, 1896; report of deserters, 1883, and of absentees, 1909-10; personal reports, 1886-1900; monthly reports of signal instruction, 1870-76; Officer of the Day's reports, 1870-73; reports of practice marches, 1906; reports of chaplains, 1907; descriptive lists, 1862-1914; and miscellaneous papers, 1884-1908.

Records of the Military Prison (U. S. Disciplinary Barracks): letters sent, 1874-95; registers of letters received, 1874-95; document file, 1906-17, with record cards, 1917; decimal file, 1918-29; orders, 1890-95; 1906-39 (with gaps); charges and specifications, 1894-95; descriptive book of non-commissioned officers, 1889-94; descriptive book of prisoners, 1875-94; monthly and weekly average of prisoners, 1877-95; registers of prisoners received, 1875-88; and records of the General Prisoners Conference Committee including constitution and minutes, 1919.

Records of the Provost Guard U. S. Military Prison: letters sent, 1875-95; endorsements, 1875-86; registers of letters received, 1885-92; orders, 1875-90; descriptive books, 1886-1894; offense and punishment records, 1880-89; rosters, 1886-92; morning reports, 1875-79, 1890-95.

Records of the Army Service School (General Staff School): document file (with index cards) 1901-18; examination papers, 1903-07; morning reports,