

MORTON MANUSCRIPT

About the last of August, 1937, Mrs. Eva Morton, Grand Junction, Iowa was in the Historical Society rooms seeking information on the story of the Plum Creek Massacre -- as told by others. At this time, she showed us the manuscript written by her mother, Mrs. Nancy Jane Fletcher Morton Stevens. In return for a Volume XIX and a copy of Sheldon's Nebraska, Old and New, she loaned us this manuscript, which is herewith copied exactly as the original.
