The Dawes roll has some queer quirks & turns in it - some entries are bad, others are better & still others not recognized by Cherokees -

Jan 9, 1927 - P.M.

Bood & family came at noon for the evening - a pleasant visit - all quiet & serene - no news of Note from any source - Went after my mail - a little chilly, yet a bright day - Congress fighting the President, & investigating all byphers Ware Senator elect from Penn held up in Senate as well as Gaudet from Maine - Smith from Ill to be headed off at the door when he proposes to enter with his Sheepskin for entrance - Members more quilly than either of them blocking their entrance - members from the
