

John Rogers Silk, Albert
Johnson & Dick Benge — Supposedly Johnson, so one Andy Crowland always said,
as he was along at the time —
Correction —

It was Houston Morgan son of ~~Frank~~ who dies in Texas as here stated — This from The Eve Daily World — of 4-5-27 —
Houston was son of Gen.
Funeral at Claremore, and the burial at Pryor —

Rain day all through, & no news of note —

April 6th 1927 — 7 p.m.

The day fine all the way through — & too quiet to be at all enjoyable — No news from any source — papers dry & newsless —

walked to the Dept to-day, & spent a few minutes with a Mr. Roma a German, on topics in general — he lives near town & sells Cream to the market at K.C. Uses a Separator — he is an Austrian — & quite intelligent, age 74 in May —

April 7-1927 — 9 a.m.

Rain some last night —
dark & dreary now — No
news from the Press or otherwise to date — all quiet & still, more rain pending — no one stirring so far —
