

Nov 14 - 27 - Moon -

This a m opened up blustery and very disagreeable - quite Windy, & cold - No news from any source.

Boon came over yesterday for my Sunday papers - I guess it is not cool for Boon & he came not yesterday -

X X

Nov - 15 - 1927 - Tuesday 4¹⁵ p.m.

Cool all day - No one came to see us - Letter from Gritchen at Nowata, stating she had been to Vicin Kelly, & that Wallace Thornton was nearly blind but in a way, coming back his sight - -

No other news from there or elsewhere, of any kind - quite cool - all day -

Nov 16, 1927 - Wednesday -

2.30 p.m.

Very cold last night - & to day, moderated some this eve -

No news -

Murder case of Locke at Antlers goes on -

Boon came last eve & had supper with us -
No mail this day -