

Had my first shop shave in Masso today - all quiet & peace - Boon & family no visit for some time -

Boodie My boy is now four in family - himself, Lulu, Jr and the new kid - Ku yoo-gah -

3 more days in March & cold enough to snow -

My Cherokee name is PHIT - W-We-guah-to Translated means Big-Knee -

My father's name in Cherokee was

ATW JOWIT - or Kau-lahchu-st-e - Translated means Little Bones -

I had an uncle named Isaac Springston - in Cherokee it was h'ah'ah' - meaning Crying Bear - Yoh-nah-ko-yunkgah -

April 2-1928 - 11 a.m.

Fine day indeed - I has been so since last entry - April 1. Boon, Ruth & Lee all came & Jr - with his little spitz dog. Boon Lee & Jr returns home p.m. Ruth remained over night with us -
