

26. South McAlester Capital--February 24, 1898: "Resolution Approved by Isparhecher" re: allotment of land.
27. Claremore Progress--February 26, 1898: "Five Tribes in Congress" re: the Indian appropriation Bill, which had amendments providing for the reorganization of the Dawes Commission, a revision of the tribal rolls, and authorizing suits in the Court of Claims against the Creek Nation by the holders of warrants, payment of which was refused by the Secretary of the Interior.
28. South McAlester Capital--March 31, 1898: "Editorial on Isparhecher" re: his order forbidding the pasturing of cattle in the Creek Nation.
29. South McAlester Capital--April 14, 1898: "Editorial on Isparhecher" re: his order that cattlemen not use the Creek Nation pastures.
30. South McAlester Capital--April 21, 1898: "News Item of Isparhecher" re: his injunction against the superintendent of instruction.
31. Claremore Progress--August 27, 1898: "Editorial on Isparhecher" re: his disappearance after being forced to turn over the Creek citizenship rolls.
32. Purcell Register--February 17, 1898: "Editorial on Proclamation by Isparhecher" re: the recent action of the Secretary of the Interior forbidding the appropriation by the Creek council to pay attorneys to resist the operation of a recent act of Congress which abolished tribal courts and turned jurisdiction over to the U. S. courts.
33. Fort Gibson Post--October 27, 1898: "News Item of Isparhecher" re: a rumor that Isparhecher and 3000 Creeks were contemplating a move to Mexico.
34. Fort Gibson Post--December 1, 1898: "Dawes-Creek Treaty."
35. Daily Chieftain--December 17, 1898: "Message of Isparhecher" to the National Council.
36. Twin Territories--February 1903: "The Last Words of Isparhecher" spoken before his death to his interpreter, Turner Taylor.
37. South McAlester Capital--June 1, 1899: "Dawes-Creek Treaty" re: the vote of citizens of the Creek Nation to ratify it.
38. South McAlester Capital--June 1, 1899: "Editorial on Isparhecher" re: his selection of an allotment.
38. South McAlester Capital--June 1, 1899: "Editorial on Isparhecher" re: his selection of an allotment.