

39. South McAlester Capital--January 25, 1901: "News Item of Isparhecher" re: his realization that all tribal relations in Indian Territory are drawing to a close.
40. Tulsa Democrat--February 21, 1902: "Editorial on Isparhecher and Pleasant Porter" re: the second uprising of the Snake Indians and the roles played in it by the above two men.
41. Chickasha Weekly Express--August 1, 1902: "Editorial on Telegram from Isparhecher" who had suffered from "indignities" from the fullbloods known as the Snakes.
42. Holdenville Times--August 2, 1902: "Editorial on Isparhecher" and his appeal to Marshal Leo Bennet for help.
43. Chilocco Farmer and Stock Grower--January 1903: "Biographical Sketch of Isparhecher."
44. South McAlester Capital--January 1, 1903: "Biographical Sketch of Isparhecher."
45. Chickasha Weekly Express--January 2, 1903: "Obituary on Isparhecher."
46. Tulsa Democrat--January 9, 1903: "Obituary on Isparhecher."
47. Capital News--June 8, 1905: "Editorial on Isparhecher" praising him as one of the "most sagacious and far-seeing Indians of modern times."
48. New State Tribune--March 8, 1906: "Anecdote of Chief Isparhecher" (sic).
49. Weleetka American--April 13, 1906: "Editorial on Isparhecher" (sic) re: his marriage to Alma Harrover.
50. A History of Oklahoma by J. B. Thoburn and Isaac M. Holcomb (1908): "Isparhecher" (sic), giving a brief biographical sketch.
51. Chronicles of Oklahoma--Volume 10 #1, March 1932: "Chief Isparhecher" by John Bartlett Meserve.