Program of the second meeting held at Arapaho Baptist Mission, March 25-27, 1912.

4. Arapahoe enrollment (includes name, gender, and age)

   Cheyenne enrollment (includes name and age)

   Kingfisher enrollment (includes name and age), July 18, 1900.

   One page list of words in Arapahoe and English.

5. Essays:

   "Reminiscences of a Missionary Among South-West Wild Indians," by Paul B. Smith. Typescript with corrections. Includes stories concerning Rev. J. S. Murrow, Rev. Evan Jones, Rev. H. F. Buckner, Rev. Ramsay Potts, rev. Joseph Smedley, Black Beaver, General Arbuckle, Rev. John McIntosh, Tulsa Micco, Rev. A. J. Holt, President Bacone, Rev. George W. Hicks, James Edwards, William Lancaster, Lone Wolf, Rev. William Conner, Miss Lauretta Ballew, and others during the period from 1838-1887, n.d.

   "The Late Indian Uprising." Author unknown. Includes discussion of the Curtis Bill, the Dawes Commission, the Crazy Snake rebellion and its leaders Lat-tak Mik-ko and Chit-to Har-jo, as well as the need for Baptist Boards and Conventions to appoint "three active, conscientious men" as missionaries among the full-blood Creeks, n.d.

   "Care of the Sick," by Mary J. Freeman, Field Matron. Describes clothing, bedding, food, etc. needed for treatment of sick people, n.d.

   Article about Pawnee Indians, n.d.

6. Christmas and New Year cards received by Murrow, n.d.

7. The Indian Orphan, volume 5, number 11, November 11, 1907

   Subscription list. Includes name of subscriber, address, and cash received, n.d.

8. Indenture of land between the Indian University of Bacone, Indian Territory and the University Broom Company of Bacone, Indian Territory, 1/30/04.

   Contract between Indian University and J.F. White of Bacone, Indian Territory regarding the raising of fruit and vegetables, 11/9/04?

   Articles of agreement between Bacone School and the Department of the Interior regarding tuition, etc. of Indian pupils, 9/27/06.

   Memorandum of agreement between Indian University and J. A. Bennett regarding land lease, April 1901.