QUESTIONS for discussion, <sup>3:00</sup>~~2:30~~ p.m., Monday, May 10th....

1. Consideration of who should be invited as roundtable participants:

Dr. Richard Mandsager	Catherine Hanley	Cliff Wiggins (moderator)
Dr. Craig Vanderwagen	Dr. Stan Griffith	Dr. Charles Allen
Jephth Dalston	Dr. Patrice Whistler	John Daugherty
Tennyson Doney	Garfield Little Light	Dr. Martin Kileen

2. Should we invite representatives of concerned organizations to present information about various aspects of the proposed system?... such as:

State Health Dept.....	Bob Vincent, or new Commissioner
State Medicaid program....	Ray Haddock, Director
IHS Area Office.....	Dr. Clark Marquardt, or Dan Cameron
Tulsa Regional Medical Center
Univ. of Oklahoma Medical School or School of Allied Health Sciences
Governor's Office

3. How long a session should this be?

We've been thinking about 3 days, with inclusion of visits to the Tsa-La-Gi village and museum, the new Sallisaw Clinic, a night at the "Trail of Tears" show, and such.

4. Should we provide a setting in which tribal council members, health officials and others might observe the discussion and interaction between participants?

5. Where should we hold the workshop sessions?

W.W. Keeler Complex - Tribal Council meeting room?
Away from the office and other distractions?
A place where we can house and feed the participants, as well as providing meeting space?
(eliminates transportation problems for out-of-town participants)

6. Consideration of dates for the session. Should it be:
