

because I am a little bit out of the territory.

We made the best of it and we're happy now. I cashed in my retirement pension and got a new well, plumbing and bathroom. Things worked out after all.

In closing, if you need any information from me let me know.

I was glad you answered my last letter in person and I appreciate that. Keep up the good work, you're doing just fine.
