

The Honor Gang's "Journal For Mother Earth's Children" is a daily journal of "reminders" created by Linda Redford and written by the Children. All students who want to participate please finish this sentence in your own handwriting on a separate piece of paper.

Today I will remember _____ (Write what you would be willing to remember to practice for a day on a separate piece of paper and sign your first name. Remember you won't be doing this alone, children all over the world will be doing the same thing on the same day as you.)

Mail all submissions before October 1, 1993 to:

Ms. Linda Redford
Ageyv (Ah-gay-ya) Productions
1034 Ninth Street, Apt. #7
Santa Monica, California 90403

- Examples: Today I will remember to solve problems without violence.
- or Today I will remember to pick up any trash I see at school.
- or Today I will remember to brush my teeth.
- or Today I will remember to practice self-discipline.
- or Today I will remember to practice honesty.
- or Today I will remember there is a safe place for my feelings.
- or Today I will remember it's okay to make a mistake.
- or Today I will remember to tell someone when I'm afraid.
- or Today I will remember I am okay just the way I am.
- or Today I will remember to make wise choices.
- or Today I will remember to practice respect for girls.
- or Today I will remember to practice respect for boys.