

May 11, 1993

Dear Participants:

I'm excited to invite you to the first ever Native American issue conference ever produced by a National Organization for Women (NOW) chapter. All speakers are of American Indian Decent. Topics address issues of Native Americans which in turn, are the issues of all America.

I urge you to come to Tahlequah, Oklahoma and meet and learn of Native American concerns from Indians of many Tribes. Wilma Mankiller, Principal Chief of the Cherokee Nation has agreed to be our Keynote Speaker. On Saturday Night, we've planned a Pow-wow/Indian Celebration to honor all activist for past accomplishments and future goals.

Special arrangements for special registration can be arranged by calling (918) 456-4229.

I look forward to your participation and contributions to this most important event.

In sisterhood,

Dana Tiger, President
National Organization for Women
Muskogee Chapter