

Now, (like my feelings for my other offspring) I want very much for it to be independent, to take on a life of its own, and not to be over-protective. But, as you well know, there is always a residual willingness to guide, support or provide whatever is needed simply because we continue to care what happens to them. While I truly look forward to doing some very different "non-health" things in retirement, there is no way I can totally divorce myself from your efforts.

If there is ever any way I can be of assistance, please don't hesitate to ask. It has been a genuine honor and pleasure to work with you.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Dana B. Copp". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a large, sweeping initial "D" that loops around the first part of the name.
