

their presence at all of their various ages and in all of their various walks of life.

I will be glad to talk with your secretary about any scheduling or answer any questions you may have about my letter. We are expecting that you will arrive in the early evening of Saturday, May 8. Your office has already told us that you are unable to be with us for an evening at the Eiteljorg Museum in Indianapolis on Friday evening. It would have been lovely to greet you there, but I know you have many commitments. The Eiteljorg is a wonderful museum of Native American and Western art. We have a dinner on Saturday evening to honor our trustees and our honorary degree candidates. That dinner begins in our private college dining room on Saturday, May 8 at 6:30 p.m.

I so look forward to welcoming you to our college campus and to naming you an alumna of this college with the degree Doctor of Letters, honoris causa.

Sincerely,

Sister Barbara Doherty, S.P.
