

Contribution fees, including all professional activities, hotel accommodations (based on double occupancy), all transportation within Moscow and meals from September, 1993 are $2400 per delegate. Registration contribution fees, including only professional activities (you make your own hotel, transportation, and meal arrangements), are $1200 per delegate. Single rooms and hotel upgrades are available upon request.

Registration contribution deposit is $700 per person, balance due 60 days prior to the conference. Registrations by credit card may be submitted via facsimile transmission. Checks may be made payable to the Foundation for International Cooperation and Development. Registrations will be accepted strictly in the order received, as space and visa limitations restrict participation.
