MILLS WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

HOLD THE DATE: June 10-12, 1993

We are writing to tell you about an invitational conference, "Leadership for the 21st Century: Women's Ways of Leading," which will convene on the Mills College campus in Oakland, California on June 10-12, 1993. Attendance will be limited to 150 participants. This exciting conference will include:

- Plenary Speakers: Dame Nita Barrow, Governor General of Barbados; Kathleen Brown, Treasurer, State of California; and Anne Firth Murray, President, The Global Fund for Women.
- Panelists: Judith Baca, Artistic Director, Social & Public Art Resources Center, Los Angeles; Bonnie Butler, Chief Attorney of Domestic Law, Maryland; Bernadine Fong, Vice President for Instruction, Foothill College; Bonnie Guiton, Dean, McIntire School of Commerce, University of Virginia; Aileen Hernandez, Urban Consultant; Donna Lopiano, Executive Director, The Women's Sports Foundation; Myra Strober, Professor of Education, Stanford University; Judy Talugon, California Council of American Indian Movement; and others.
- Panel discussions on leadership grounded in women-centered values and strategies for furthering women's leadership.
- Leadership resource sessions and small group discussions.

In addition to serving as a forum, the conference will be the kick-off event for the establishment of the Mills Women's Leadership Institute. As a participant in this conference, you will take part in the planning of the Institute.

Formal invitations will be mailed in April. Please mark the dates on your calendar and plan to attend. See you in June!
