

harass me. This is an abuse of power and the beginning of a year long written system of harassment and threats of dismissal. Professor Curcio's File Note of January 10, 1992 is misleading, inaccurate, and continues to have an adverse impact on me.

January 27, 1992- Monday a speed memo from Professor Hunter was left in my student box at the Radiologic Technology Department. It stated, "Your notebook has been picked up late and this after two statements of when notebooks are to be picked up. You will receive a zero "0" under faculty evaluations." Professor Hunter made her first and second "statement" to the whole class. She never addressed me personally as this written memo would have the reader believe. I called Professor Curcio to let her know I was ill the day Professor Hunter put out the notebooks in class to be picked up. I felt to be given a "0" grade under faculty evaluations within the first two weeks of the spring 92 semester was an abuse of power by Professor Hunter. This meant having 25% taken off my final grade within the first two weeks of the spring 1992 semester. I eventually got confirmation of my call-in to Professor Curcio from the secretary in order to have the "0" grade lifted. At this point, I had been through two months of harmful stress following the November 13 and 18 words on quizzes. Harmful stress comes without warning and cannot be controlled, and that is the kind of stressor Professor Curcio became to me. I began to experience loss of
