

James F. Crawford, JR.
Page two experience continued...

WORK HISTORY

1986 - 1992
Senior Loss Control Representative

U.S. Fidelity & Guaranty
Insurance Company, Oklahoma City

Summary: Conducted surveys and inspections of properties and construction projects to insure compliance with safety regulations and advise client companies in the avoidance of costly accidents and liabilities.

1965 - 1986
Deputy United States Marshal
Western District of Oklahoma

U.S. Department of Justice
U.S. Marshals Service
Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

Summary: Worked up through ranks to become Deputy Commander of Special Operations Group. Served in that capacity from 1971 to 1984. SOG is an elite paramilitary reaction force providing the President of the United States and Attorney General with resources to respond to national emergencies. Served from 1979 to 1986 as an Enforcement Specialist, advising the U.S. Marshal on technical matters and conducting investigations and liaison with other law enforcement agencies.

1962 - 1965
Trooper

Oklahoma Highway Patrol
Oklahoma Department of Public Safety

Conducted accident and criminal investigations and enforced compliance with laws.

1959 - 1962
Patrolman

Alva and Woodward, Oklahoma,
Police Departments

Enforced laws, conducted investigations and maintained liaison with other agencies.

EDUCATION

Northwestern Oklahoma State University
Bachelor of Criminal Justice Administration/Sociology
Oklahoma State University
Associate Degree in Police Science
Treasury Law Enforcement Officers Training School
Numerous in-service training seminars

Reference Available Upon Request