

My writings are a blend of historical fact with apparent political science overtones. I am by vocation, and by choice an investigator, and believe that I have the facility to effectively present back-up for current political strategies.

I seek no remuneration - the Cherokee Nation has already paid - I do desire to become involved at a consultive level where my experiences can be effectively utilized.

Sincerely yours,

EDWIN L. DOOLEY

(918) 455-4220

Encl: a/s.