Wilma:

An update on the meeting Thursday night:

We're expecting about 125 people at the Hollywood Policy Center meeting Thursday night. It's a mix of Native American activists, actors and a Hollywood crowd which includes activist types as well as some wealthy folks. (You might see some familiar faces there such as Diane Ladd, Howard Hesseman, Michael Horse, Mary-Stuart Masterson, Lou Diamond Phillips, Sonny Skyhawk).

You and Troy Wayne are confirmed at the Sheraton Miramar Hotel, 101 Wilshire Blvd., Santa Monica, 310/576-7777.

Either I or Chuck Sawyer from my office will pick you and Troy up at the airport on Thursday. If it is Chuck, he will have a sign to make sure you recognize him (you met him once in New York at that restaurant "Memphis.")

We will also drive you and Troy to the HPC meeting on Thursday evening.

Unfortunately, Robert Greenwald had to make an unexpected trip to Texas about an upcoming production he has there. So he's not going to be able to meet with us on Thursday. However, Kristina and I would like to get together with you during that time to figure out where we go from here in view of our last conversation. Kristina will come down around 4:30 on Thursday and we thought we could get a bite to eat somewhere around the hotel and then drive you all over to Cynthia Sikes' house.

Please let me know if any of this does not suit you and we can rearrange.

Thanks and I hope you've had a good trip these last 2 weeks.

Frances Kidd
