

DOROTHY LEROUX

22 D WALDO POINT HARBOR
SAUSALITO, CA. 94965
(415) 331-9146

OBJECTIVE: International Development, with particular emphasis on:

- * Project Design, Management and Evaluation
- * Training Design and Implementation
- * Organizational Development
- * Cross-Cultural Communication
- * Research, Marketing and Promotion

EDUCATION:

B.A. University of California, Berkeley. French Literature
M.A. University of Paris, Sorbonne. Literature
M.S. California State University. Psychology/ Organizational Development
Credential: State of California. Adult Education/ Counseling

LANGUAGES: French and Spanish: fluent

INTERNATIONAL WORK EXPERIENCE: Europe, South America, Central America, Mexico,
Caribbean, South Pacific, Micronesia, Africa

CLIENTS AND PROJECTS:

1992 CAMP DRESSER AND MCKEE INTERNATIONAL, Project W.A.S.H.(Water and Sanitation for Health) As lead trainer, conducted a two-week workshop in NIGER in Community Waste Disposal and Latrine Construction, utilizing interactive techniques appropriate to sanitation education and interventions; field-tested and critiqued revised W.A.S.H. training guide.

U.S. PEACE CORPS: Developed training sessions and coached agency trainers in preparation for the 1992 New Recruiter Training Conference held in Coolfont, W.VA.

RONCO CONSULTING CORPORATION: Consulted with ZAMS (Zambian Agribusiness and Management Support) Project participants, as well as officials representing the Ministry of Commerce and Industry, in preparation for an organizational development and team building workshop, conducted in ZAMBIA.

SONOMA STATE UNIVERSITY: Co-facilitated faculty/staff workshop in cultural diversity with emphasis on cross-cultural communication and cultural sensitivity in the workplace.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, DAVIS: Consulted on design of USAID-sponsored training for Guatemalan women in agriculture.