

ABOUT SGP

With more than 54 books in print, SGP is a leading producer of popular reference books. Our clients include Houghton Mifflin, HarperCollins, Warner Books, Hyperion, Bantam, Dell, Norton and others. Among our many titles:

The Information Please Business Almanac and Desk Reference, an annual compendium of essential business information, was published for the first time in 1993. Already in its third hardcover printing, the Business Almanac has sold more than 50,000 copies. The Wall Street Journal said, "These facts could make you filthy rich." Library Journal awarded it a coveted HIGHLY RECOMMENDED rating, and CBS Radio called it, "The business bible."

Stanley Kaplan SourceBooks, is a fourteen book series designed to help students prepare for the SAT. For the first time in 50 years, Stanley Kaplan, the nation's largest test prep firm, has offered its SAT course in book form.

The People Weekly Entertainment Almanac, compiled in conjunction with Cader Books, is the ultimate collection of facts, figures and faces from the world of celebrities and entertainment. To be published by Little, Brown in 1994.

Keep Abortion Safe & Legal, is part of the Postcard Activist series, which includes Ban Censorship and No Handguns. Created in conjunction with NARAL, this book highlights 30 critical contacts in the fight for abortion rights.

The Almanac is edited by Lisa DiMona, Megan O'Connor, Chris Angelilli, and Carol Markowitz.
