RE: Jewelry on Loan

Honorable Chief Mankiller,

It has been my pleasure and honor to have you wear my jewelry during your term as Chief of the Cherokees. The book with your picture on the cover wearing my necklace has been greatly admired and appreciated by many. I am humbled. I would still love to have an oil portrait made of you wearing one of my pieces.

I am starting to have my jewelry displayed in art exhibits around the country. I would appreciate the timely return of the two (2) pieces that have been on loan to you. Mother stated that you could not remember the turquoise bracelet. I have enclosed pictures of the two pieces to assist you in identification.

Please contact me if you have any further questions.

Thank you,

Sallie Y. Dietrich

Wilma:

I told Ella Mae that if they would quote a price for the bracelet you would pay for it since we couldn't locate it.
