

get a foothold in the Seminole nation. He says if any oil company gets leases there it will have to be with the consent of the allottees and the Seminole nation. He intimated that the company that got the leases would have to offer mighty fair terms. So far the Seminoles have succeeded in getting better lease contracts than any of the other nations because all the contracts have been made under the supervision of the Seminole attorney.