My dear Sir and Friend:

I have recently read your dissenting opinion in the Hazen-Green Case and without any attempt whatsoever to flatter, I unhesitatingly state it is a classic. Not only is such the case, in my humble judgement, but it rings true to every demand of merit, justice, and square dealings.

I simply could not refrain from expressing to you my appreciation of this opinion.

With all good wishes and highest personal considerations, I am

Respectfully yours,

Honorable J. J. Smith
Attorney at Law

Dear Judge:

Yours of February 9th relative to the Hazen Green dissenting opinion received. Allow me to thank you very much for your kind and effulgent praise thereof. Of course the only object I had in the matter was that of seeing that as nearly as I could these lawyers and any other lawyer of the State might be protected in their rights as well as deprived of them.

With best wishes, I am,

Yours respectfully,
