THE ADVANTAGES OF W.H.S

The advantages of W. H. S. may be possessed by other good high schools, but the immediate duty of this school is to the surrounding community, yet, in a larger sense, its duty is to the world. Time was when if one were a good citizen of his town, it was enough. The great war has impressed forcibly upon us that we must think in terms of all humanity, must be broad minded world citizens.

This is the duty of our school. We are but a small unit in this great fabric of world citizenship, but we may weave into our unit such fitness and efficiency as to produce men and women who will be a credit to the community and a power in the land.

As the university is to the professional man, so is the high school to the unprofessional.

We cannot offer professional courses; it is questionable whether a trend toward professionalism is within the scope of high schools; but the opportunity for the great foundations of life are to be found here. The general knowledge of subject matter; the essential qualities of a good mixer; the athletic training for a strong body, the supreme training of leadership or membership in school organizations with people who have an ambition in life. These are a few of the advantages; there are many others. The students profit from a school is measured by the work he does. There is no excellency without great labor. Pity, yet condemnation for the pupil who does not realize the seriousness of school life and permits his time to slip by without filling it up with profitable work.

For the pupil who "gets by" school life is but a succession of bitter defeats which he realizes all too late. He may "get by", so will his mind and character "get by" without taking anything of good or value with it.

ADVANTAGES AT W. H. S.

In this article we desire more than all else to so present the W. H. S. as to draw to its halls for the coming terms a larger force of students.

W. H. S. is a fully accredited four year high school. We have a high school faculty of five so that there is no overworked teachers and consequently no drawback on the school in that way. We may say that the full interest of the faculty is in the school and it is their aim to make W. H. S. one of the best of schools.

We desire especially to reach the graduates of the rural schools in the districts about Wewoka, for it is to this district directly that our duty as a school is to be done. Every graduate of the common school in the town and surrounding country should make a firm resolve not to quit school now as so many unwise pupils do, but to get through high school at any cost. The high school stands in relation to the unprofessional man as the college does to the professional man, and the age is upon us when at least a high school education is necessary to the successful person.

Worse than all else, the slacker in school exerts a depressing influence upon all his schoolmates.

For the honest, conscientious worker, the school room opens its treasure box of golden opportunities, much more than book knowledge is to be considered here. For him W. H. S. holds pleasant memories and means a milestone toward success.

Our W. H. S. is the dressing room of life for students. Some will emerge from its halls robed in these hining garments of efficiency, with a satisfied, elevating feeling of work well done. Some will stumble from its classrooms in the rags of intellectual poverty. We hold our destinies in our hands. Let us work them out with all will.

W. H. S. Wewoka, Oklahoma

The course of study for next year will be as follows: (subject to change) First year and advanced algebra, plane and solid geometry, three years of Latin, four years of English, ancient modern and American history, agriculture physics, current events, a complete normal training course, the only one in the county, two years of manual training, an excellent course in domestic science, from the fifth grade up, including two years of high school work. We have an exceptional Domestic Science teacher who devotes her entire time to the work. Besides the regular class room work we have various school activities that are of great benefit to the student in fitting him for life's school, such as the school paper, literary society, debating and oratorical club, music club, athletics, etc.

As to our equipment. Our building is modern, equipped with an excellent water system, sewerage, electrically lighted, steam heated, modern ventilating and lighting system, etc. Another large building is to be built down town, in connection with the auditorium and gymnasium. Our campus cannot be surpassed in this county. We have over a block of nearly level ground, the school yard properly planted to grass and lined with young trees. The athletic field is of the best and large enough to accommodate all games. We have a large library of the best books for school use that money can buy and we are adding to it all the time.

A word to parents. Do not make the fatal mistake of allowing your child to stop school. Too many parents are overindulgent when they know what is best for their child. Many children are very prone to want to stop school simply because they have had a little disagreement with the teacher or they just don't like

Editorial

This is the last but not the least edition of the Little Tiger in this — its second year. We feel justified in saying that many of the students have been benefited by our little sheet. We believe that the training received by those who have helped to make this paper the success that it is, will recompense them for their time and trouble.

Our little sheet, although successful, is not the success that it would have been had our former experienced staff been present. Owing to graduations and enlistments nearly all of our experienced staff were taken from us. And the present staff was composed of an entirely new "crew." But next year, with the experience of the past year, we hope to make the Little Tiger a howling success.

Of course, most of the work has evolved upon only a few students, but that doesn't mean that the paper is exclusive. We have called upon the student body for material, and any time that suitable material is handed to us we will gladly accept it for publication.

The staff takes this occasion to thank those who have helped to make the Little Tiger a success, and especially to the business men who have helped us materially by their earnest support.

Hoping to make the Little Tiger a greater success next year.

We wish you a "bon voyage" through vacation.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK PROGRAM

Sunday morning, May 12—Baccalaureate Sermon by Rev. Smith, dean of the Baptist University Faculty, Shawnee, Oklahoma.

Monday night, May 13—High School reception to the Eighth Grade.

Tuesday night, May 14—Junior-Senior reception.

Wednesday night, May 15, Eighth Grade Graduation Exercises.

Thursday night, May 16, Faculty Play.

Friday night, May 17, High School Graduation Exercises—Address by Luther Harrison of Ada, Oklahoma.

Saturday morning, May 18, Funeral of Senior books.

This is the third commencement program to be given in Wewoka. The Senior class of 1915-16 consisted of only two members, Malcolm Kiker and Clarence Shaw. The class of 1916-17 consisted of seven members, Clarence Miller, Kenneth Baker, Herbert Dixon, Frances Smith, Willie Mae Thomason, Myrtle Dixon, and Edith Twinam. This year's graduating class consists of only three members, Tess Thomason, Rose Campbell and Willie Lee Bunyard, making a total of twelve graduates from W. H. S.

W. H. S. is small in membership but as the old adage goes, "Success Depends on Quality, not Quantity."

Watch our Quality increase, yearly.

Mr. Myers—"Helen looks worried, doesn't she?"

Miss Baker—"Yes she's borrowing trouble."

Mr. Myers—"About what?"

Miss Baker—"Oh, she's fretting about the number of expansion on the war when peace is declared. She'll be forced to read 'em all because she's in the current events class you know."

Eva—"Charlie why aren't you in Khaki?"

Charlie—"For the very same reason you aren't in a beauty parlor, just sheer physical unfitness."

OUR EXCHANGES

At the beginning of the year, we sent the "Little Tiger" to many of the schools who were publishing, and to those who were not. We did this for several issues and then exchanged with only those who sent us their publications. Next year we hope our exchange list is increased several times over. We also hope that our paper has been as welcome to others as the few we have received have been welcomed by us.

Below are listed our exchanges:

The Purple and White—Anadarko, Okla.
The Panhandler—Guymon, Okla.
The Orange and Black—Stillwater, Okla.
The Baby Sooners—Holdenville, Okla.
The East Centralite—Ada, Okla.
The Black and Gold—Tecumseh, Okla.
The Boomer—El Reno, Okla.
The Oklahoma Weekly—Norman, Okla.
The Orbit—Dale, Okla.
The Periscope—Checotah, Okla.
The Carrier—Carrier, Okla.
The Caldron—Shawnee, Okla.
The Anticline—Oilton, Okla.
The Arrow—Tyrone, Okla.
The Shyanne—Watonga, Okla.
The Beaver—Beaver, Okla.
The Grey Wolfe—Marlow, Okla.

Miss Browne—"Why did you fail in your exam, Opal?"

Opal—"Oh, merely a difference of opinion between me and the examiner."

Miss Browne—"Oh, what was that?"

Opal—"Well, I thought the French won the battle of Waterloo, and he seemed to think the British did."

Vernon while climbing on top of the school house discovered that the shingles were rather slippery. All at once he began to slip and slide. These words were heard—"Oh, Lord! Save me, save me, Lord! Oh! Oh! save me—never mind now I'm caught on a nail."

When the 9th grade started in high school in September 1914, they were eighteen strong and they had roseate ideas concerning the future and their particularly large part in it. It is needless to say that much egotism has since been taken from them.

The next year there were six of them: Dale Dotson, J. C. Campbell, Charlie Keith, Rose Campbell, Tess Thomason and Willie Lee Bunyard. They lost three of these but are very proud of them, nevertheless. J. C. Campbell is working in Seminole; Dale Dotson is in the 142nd Infantry, Co. F, Camp Bowie. Charlie Keith is in the Brooklyn Navy Yards, N. Y., Co. B Elec. Class. These men are there, immediate contributions to the sinews of war.

In 1916-17 there were only two; Willie Lee and Tess. Rose Campbell spent the year in a convent in Oklahoma City.

This year sees the attainment of their ambition. The realization of their hopes. Of the three who are to graduate—Willie Lee, Tess and Rose—Willie Lee is to be the valedictorian.

The girls have taken, in many instances, the same courses and have always been firm friends. They are good students and do their work well. They have, however, their favorite branches. Willie Lee is especially good in English. She is one of the few true appreciations of poetry. She sings also and is a member of the H. S. quartet.

Tess is what is commonly known as a "math shark" but all scientific fields interest her. From this we may deduce the fact that she is logically minded. This is a gift given to few women. Tess is also a talented reader.

Rose is interested in domestic science. She is an excellent Latin student, having finished all the Latin that is offered here. Also she studies with interest the miracles of past ages as found in histories. Besides these interests, she plays the violin well.

All three Seniors have taken the teachers' training course this winter and two of them, Willie Lee and Tess, are prospective teachers. Rose has not decided definitely what she will do next year.

The Seniors are pleasant, agreeable, talented and conscientious girls, and good students. The faculty and student body wish them success in whatever line of endeavor they choose and the people of Wewoka confidently expect them to be happy and successful.

Senior Prophecy

It is night—at the hour of mid-night—and not an earthly being stirs. There is nothing about this spot where the roads cross to remind one of human life. No sound is heard except the soft rustle of the wind through the trees. Even it purrs low and sweetly as if in fear of disturbing some one. But who? If we could understand its language some times, when it sings so softly to us, we would hear strange tales and learn wonderful things. But Ah! Why wish and wonder? The wind will keep its secrets.

At the right of the road leading to the north, near a lone, tall oak, stands the fairest of all Fate's messengers—"moon light."

Lovely she is and all in tune with the beauty of the night. But how different is the black robed and black hooded figure with the wrinkled hands and face, who appears. Diabolical humor shines in her black eyes as she looks upon life.

She smiles upon her favorite: "My fairest one, have many passed today?"

"As always, your majesty," answers moon light, "women beautiful and ugly, fair and dark, all young and yet some with old eyes. Most were very common place."

"You saw nothing that attracted your attention—nothing that interested you intensely?" asked Fate.

"Yes! Yes! your Majesty. I had forgotten. Late in the day when the shadows lengthened—nay! later, during the hour after Helios sank down, there passed three girls. They were together and knew each other's faults and virtues well, your Majesty, for they stood at the crossing longer than usual, and I heard them advising each other and trying to decide which road to take.

The tallest was fair like me, with blue eyes. She wished to take the road of fame that lies straight before us, following the first branch, which turns as you know, into the road of matrimony.

The oldest and the smallest in stature was of the same type as that mortal beauty, Cleopatra. She chose the road to the left—the road that leads straight to matrimony; and she tried to influence her companions to accompany her, but without success.

And the other—I must think. It is hard to describe her. I cannot compare her with any of us. She was neither light nor dark and her hair was like the sun when it rises in the early morning.

When they parted, she took the road to the right. As we have seen before, she soon found the road very difficult to follow. It is the world of business and there are many men and few women in it. She hopes—like many others—to reach the point where it turns into the road of fame but I cannot tell how her career will end. I watched her until she passed the last branch road that leads to matrimony; clearly, she will be what the mortals call an old maid.

Fate listened intently all the while and now she nodded her old head wisely and asked: "And what of the other two?"

"When I last saw them they were together, happily following the road of matrimony."

Satisfied, the bent old woman turned away. Again there was the malicious glint of humor in her eyes.

Ah! Yes! It is exactly as I planned, as I weave their destinies in my wheel. They must realize now, that they have only their small part in my scheme of life, no matter what happiness and fame they may attain.

 Class Motto.. "Forward Ever, Backward Never."

Class Colors..... Red, White and Blue
 Class Flower.. Carnation (red and white)
 Class Yell.. Not slow, but keen; Juniors Nineteen.

The Junior class has been recorded as an "extra keen" class since its entrance in W. H. S. In fact it has been keen in more ways than one.

Although our quantity, which was twenty three members when we entered High School, has decreased to six, we still possess the old time quality — the stick-to-it-ive-ness that spells success.

Out of the seventeen members whom we have lost, eight have been added to Uncle Sam's service, four to the Navy, three to the Infantry, and one to the Cavalry.

The Juniors have always taken an active part in the school activities both literary and athletic. We had four men on this year's football team, one of whom was the captain; two men on the basket ball team, one of whom was captain; and one man on the baseball team. We had two members on the Little Tiger Staff; one member on the girls' basket ball team who was the captain, one member on the debating team.

The President and Vice-President of the Athletic Association; the President and Secretary of the Literary Society, and yell leader were also of the Junior realm.

Watch the Juniors in the future.

Junior Class Prophecy

Looking down the main traveled road one can see the members of the Junior Class at their various occupations. He will be surprised little for they have attained what they desired most.

Era Shiflett, in spite of her years, still looking young, will be writing letters to a soldier but warning him that some definite plans must be made soon.

Helen Jordan will be sitting at home waiting for the best year of every four—Leap Year.

Fred Frederick will be touring the world on the bumpers of box cars. He will be accompanied by a small yellow dog which will be his sole earthly companion. We can imagine it as being neglected.

Claude Douglas will be found sitting in a pagoda in Japan reading Kipling and trying to convince himself that he can live forever so that he may have time to attain his desired goal.

Cora Belle Dunaway is settled happily in life with a rich farmer who saw in her all admirable virtues. "A perfect woman, nobly planned to warn, to comfort and COMMAND."

Barton Aldridge (not spelled Oldrich) will be found a most insignificant "sub" on a big league baseball club, whose regular work is the selling of tickets at the entrance.

In this manner each one of us attains that which we most desire, even though it may not always be praiseworthy.

JUNIORS—Who We Are

 To the Gods belong tomorrow."

Fred Frederick—Football, tennis.

"Where are the girls!"

MAY DAY FESTIVITIES

The lower grades, assisted by the high school gave a most excellent May Day program. The honor for the success of the occasion must be divided up among the grade teachers, Mrs. Orwig, Mrs. Key, Miss Horton, and Miss McBride, the director, who worked so patiently with the little folk and to whom a large share of the credit is due.

Few things bring out the individuality of the child more than May Day programs. In the pretty dances, none of which looked easy to the writer, the children showed surprising ability, some in particular showed such grace of movement and symmetry of action as to be truly extraordinary. Loey Rogers, our high school doll, was the popular may queen and the multitude of little folk dancing and paying homage before her was an inspiring sight.

Maxine Cutlip, in her "Spring Dance" showed unusual ability and gained many fine compliments from the admiring crowd. Among the other performances were the "Greek Dance", given by twelve little girls; the Minuet, in costume, given by Miss Horton's little folk. Miss Horton deserves full credit for their training and they drew the admiring attention of the crowd as only little people can. Other dances given by the fifth and sixth grade girls were fine. The evening was ideal, tho we got started a little late, but the crowd stayed and offered encouragement to the little folk which they wanted most.

The crowd was the largest that has ever gathered at a May Day festival in Wewoka and they contributed so liberally to the expense fund that we had about fifteen dollars left to be applied to our Liberty Bond fund, which was raised thereby, and now we are ready to buy our bond.

The Seniors are looking forward with great anticipation to commencement week.

Class Motto "Sic Semper Tyrannus" Class Colors Pink and Green.
Class Flower, Mistletoe.

When the Freshman class of 1916-17 entered W. H. S. the class was composed of nineteen members. Several of the members withdrew and we entered the Sophomore class with seven members.

New students came and now we have eleven sophomores. Two of our old classmates, Hazel Davis and Batus Taylor, left us before the freshman year was finished to enter the Bonds of Matrimony. They are now Mrs. Porterfield and Mrs. Morgan. Several of the boys also left us and have gone to other places.

Nobody can deny the good-fellowship of the Sophomore class, and they're always full of "pep". They take active part in every form of school activity as is shown by the following:

The staff of the Little Tiger is composed of eight students, five of whom are Sophomores. They hold the following positions: Editor in Chief, Jake Alex; Assistant Editor, Rudolph Hill; Assistant Business Manager, Charley Miller; Joke Editor, Ruby Bass; and Calender Editor, Dorothy Frazer.

The debating team is composed of three members, two of whom are Sophomores. The contender for singles, (boys) was also a sophomore.

Four Sophomores were on the Basket Ball team, and three Sophomores girls played on the Basket Ball team that annexed the county championship.

The right half and right end on the 1917 Pigskin Boosters were Sophs.

The first sacker and the left field gardener on the 1918 base ball team were of the Sophomore tribe.

The representatives of the Sophomore class also "polled" more points during the county track meet than any other class in high school.

They are also the leading class of the high school and when anything is to be done about class affairs, the Sophs take the lead.

One of the honors they hold is the name of being the "BEST" class ever. Not "Good" but "BEST".

Rudolph Hill, the class president, is one of the smartest boys in school. He can tell you anything you ask him.

The Soph colors are Emerald Green and Deep Pink. The Emblem is the "Tiger", and the Motto is "Sic Semper Tyrannis". When it comes to jollity you have it in the Sophomore Class. When you come to W. H. S. ask about us, "We're Alright."

Class Prophecy

It was after a long, hard work and I jumped in my "Pathfinder" twelve, and left the hot, stuffy city far behind me. Out in the country the soft breeze was blowing and everything looked peaceful and calm. As the long, ribbon-like road slipped smoothly by, I began to think of old times and faces. "Oh! Christmas", I heard a voice remark and I seemed to see Clarence Kikeer, one of my Sophomore school mates laboring hard, trying to get a trined leopard to jump through a hoop. I asked him in surprise what he was doing, and he said, he had bought "Barnum and Bailey's" great show and was making a great success. He slowly faded from sight and in his place stood Opal Casey; she was smartly dressed in the height of fashion and she greeted me warmly and introduced me to her husband, a handsome young man whom I discovered was a stranger to me, but whose name was Count De Moreau. She said she had something to tell me and we went off to one side and she said she was tired of him and was going to get a divorce and come and live with me. I told her to come on, that I would be delighted as I did not like his looks either, and she bade me goodbye and left me. I heard a voice singing a running melody and whom should I see but Frances Tucker coming, a little girl of about two years of age, whom she called Cecile, she said she was a missionary in China and had been teaching a Chinese school. She said she had also done great work there. She walked along with me for a ways and then said she had to go. Suddenly a low, grey, racing car shot by, but with a loud bang! one of the tires went flat, and amid many exclamations, Hugh Barham got out and proceeded to put on another one. He said he had inherited several million dollars and was having a fine time. I noticed he was dressed in khaki and asked him if he had enlisted. He said he had and was only home on a furlough, that he had to go back next week. He talked quite awhile and said he had to go home to his wife.

He left and suddenly I was in a great newspaper office. Clerks were bustling about everywhere and a hearty voice shouted "hello", and there was Jake Alex. He showed me his office and I found he was the editor of the largest newspaper in the state of New York. He proudly said it was a great success and invited me to come and see him and his wife at their fifth avenue home. I thanked him kindly, but did not have the time to go so I left him.

Presto! I was in another place. It was a church and there was a wedding. I gasped with surprise, for it was John Williams and Ruby Bass; standing before Reverend Rudolph Hill, three more of my Soph classmates.

An unexpected cheering came to my ears and I rushed outside and I saw what I was on a large pier and a great ship was leaving. Raising a bottle of champagne on high, a marine christened the ship "The Sophomore" and I was face to face with Charlie

Class History of Freshmen

In September 1917 when school in Wewoka High started the ninth grade had twenty-two promising members. Between that time and this the class has dwindled to eight, but, as every one knows, this eight makes up in quality what is so evidently lacking in members.

The class started the year under the guardianship of John Campbell who, as president, found that the seat of authority is not always a pleasant one. In other words he proved the old Maxim "Heavy lies the head that wears a crown." Later, due to difference of opinion in the class he resigned his position. At the present John is not in school and the ninth grade feels his absence keenly. While we may not always agree with him we see and acknowledge him as our born leader.

Elected to fill the vacant chair of president was Erbert Shiflett; under his reign our class has placidly gone on its way. In the manner of our leader we do not take life seriously and consequently find little to bother us.

Violet Dyer was elected as secretary-treasurer but resigned when she was made class representative, and Loey B. Rogers was elected. Violet is one of the classes most consistent students and at the same time she is never too busy to enjoy some fun.

Loey Belle Rogers is the present secretary-treasurer of the Freshmen and she is quite competent. Although Loey Belle has not been with us long she is liked by every one. Her popularity was proved when she was elected may queen. She is the pillar of the Latin Dept.

Gladys Taylor is the other girl who has stayed persistently with school and her efforts are appreciated by all.

Wright Christian is the intellectual member of the class; the rest of the students do not care to compete if he is trying out for anything. While he is acknowledged to be brighter than the average boy, he is not disagreeable about it.

Vernon Rogers is the class wit, and while other have at times tried to take his laurels from him, he has kept them secure. Along with this, however, he is an excellent algebra student. So we know that he is well balanced.

George Chamblee is the smallest member of the class. He works hard and is liked by everyone. He is a special protege of the Latin Department. George is known as a student, who at times is afflicted with ennui.

William Nicholson, while clever, has felt his age too keenly to compete with Vernon for the position of class wit. Bill is jolly, though, and liked by all. He is the class athlete — has had a place in foot ball, basket ball and baseball.

Of the students who have left, some deserve a little special mention. Inez Glines, who is now in Oklahoma City high school, was formerly quite a factor in the ninth grade. She was literary editor of the Little Tiger and did her work well.

Estes Glines is now working in Oklahoma City. He decided that there were fields of endeavor more pleasant than that of school.

Glenn Lindsey who moved to Holdenville in January is now working in Dutton's Drug Store. It has been said that he is married, but while we know him to be fond of ladies, we doubt the probability of this.

Ida and Ethel Johnson moved during the winter to Hydro, Okla., and have been greatly missed by all the students.

Byrd Lane, one of the true "students" of our high school whose work in the Latin was remarkable, and in ancient history was praise worthy. He quit school on account of ill health and has since left the condition of single blessedness.

Frank Lane also quit school on account of ill health and has been working in City Garage.

Jesse Sivils, the foot ball hero, has left us for other work and has since been married.

Richard Holland went to Holdenville with his parents and is now attending school there.

Faye Meek felt the attraction of a "woman's work" and left lessons to help at home. We feel that she has chosen a good kind of service.

Roy Shepard was also one of us, and we disliked to lose him but Roy has taken a position in town. He is still an active supporter of all school affairs.

Arthur and Ernest Grall were in our classes at the beginning of the year. They are both now in Oklahoma City where Arthur is taking a business course. We have lost many from our class. We are pessimistic, however, because we feel that it is due to the war in which the country is engaged. The country is undergoing depressing circumstances and they cannot help being reflected in the schools of our country. We believe that the members we have, we will keep, and that as time passes we will add others to our roll.

Freshman Prophecy

It was my last day at college and I was waiting for my train home. At last it came and I, after several hours ride reached home. As I stepped off the train whom should I see but Erbert Shiflett. He was faultlessly dressed, with a monocle and kid gloves. He greeted me formally and said he was a school teacher getting $200 and I went on farther and stopped at the drug store, and who did I find sitting in there talking to a strange lady, but Vernon Rogers. He introduced the lady as his wife, and told me his occupation. He was now president of the Farmers National Bank. Soon the couple left and while I was sitting there resting, I walked George Chamblee. He told me that he had just returned from Chicago, where he is now in charge of a large factory, and that he would return in a few days to his work.

Just as I left the store I saw a familiar face, but I could hardly believe that it was Gladys Taylor whom I had gone to school with at W. H. S. She said she had recently been married and was living on a farm. She also told me of another of my school mates, William Nicholson, had finished school and was now a travelling salesman with headquarters at St. Louis. I left her and thought that I would go to the school building, and just as I entered the door, to my surprise, I met my friend, Violet Dyer. She was now a high school teacher, under the supervision of another school friend of mine, Wright Christian, who was now superintendent of Wewoka schools. Wright had become

During the term 1917-18, twenty-five pupils have been enrolled. Out of this number however, three have been dropped, leaving only twenty-two members.

The class activities have been few and far between, consisting mainly of skating parties during the winter months.

On April 30th, Mr. Freeman, our teacher, heard his country's call and left for a training camp. Since his position has been taken by Mrs. Sweatt.

The following are our present members:

Ruth Bertha Brown, Benjamin Blakeney Christian, Beulah Mauge Crutsinger, Richard Earle Day, Roy Eugene Douglas, Helen LeRoy Douglas, Sherlie Anna Evans, George Wilbert Frederick, Jessie Donaldine Frazier, Paul Hamilton Horton, Milton Mainard Kennerly, Verna Vivian Keith, Lois Velma Kiker, Salwa Rose Kouri, Mary Billie Patton, Coy Myrandan Puckett, Clara Loucinda Ramage, Jenny Estha Robinson, Arthur Joseph Seran, Beatrice Rebecca Stringfield, Mary Victoria Thomason, Max Morton VanSandt.

Teachers—Mr. Henry L. Freeman, Mrs. Alleyne S. Sweatte.

When our class enters W. H. S. we intend to make a record as good as or even better than any Freshman class that has preceded us.

FACULY 1917-18

With three exceptions the personnel of the faculty has not been changed since the beginning of the year. The list of teachers who began work in September is as follows: Miss Charlotte Horton, Primary; Miss Gene Horton, first and second; Miss Lillian McBride, third; Miss Ruth Baker, fourth; Miss Geneva Durham, fifth; Miss Mary Patterson, sixth; Mr Henry L. Freeman, seventh and eighth; Miss Bess Burwell, Domestic Science; Miss Hazel Browne, English and Language; Miss Lucy Baker, Science and Mathematics; Mr. T. S. Myers, Principal; Mr. W. W. Isle, Superintendent.

In December Miss Durham resigned because of ill health and her place was taken by Mrs. S. S. Orwig. At the same time, Miss Gene Horton accepted a position in Cleveland, Okla., her place being taken by Miss Helen Hayes. On April 30th, Mr. H. L. Freeman answered his country's call leaving Mrs. Guy Sweatt to take his place in the school.

In writing a resume of the year's work, so far as the faculty is concerned it would be difficult to mention all the good results which each teacher has obtained.

Mr. Isle, who succeeded Mr. Cralle, has proved himself a most able superintendent, and in addition to his regular work, has coached a successful football and a very successful girls basketball team.

Mr. Myers, principal, has handled his work very satisfactorily and, in addition, is coaching a winning baseball team.

Miss Browne's ability as a teacher of English is incontestable, and she has successfully introduced a new course, French, in the curriculum.

Miss Lucy Baker, in addition to her regular work, has directed the Treble Clef Club, (a girl's two part chorus), and coached the two students who won second and third places in algebra at the county track meet.

Miss Burwell's work every one knows; she has managed a most successful Cafeteria, and her classes prove her ability as a teacher.

Both Mr. Freeman and Mrs. Sweatt have proven to fill the difficult position of seventh and eighth grade teacher.

Miss Patterson has evolved a strong sixth grade.

Miss Durham and Mrs. Orwig have shown their ability by making the fifth grade an all-around above the average grade.

Miss Ruth Baker, (now Mrs. Key), and Miss McBride have not only proven good teachers but are especially commended for their management of the May Day festivities.

Miss Hayes established her reputation when she brought a winner in story telling to the track meet.

Miss Horton has proven a charming and competent primary teacher.

On the whole the faculty and students have had a very pleasant year and are looking forward now to a pleasant vacation.

Victory and Honors Won

Anyone who witnessed the hard fought game between our base ball boys and the Konawa boys, April 16, the second day of the county track meet, will not deny that it was a glorious victory.

When the game started both teams were filled with the utmost confidence as to the final outcome of the game.

A few moments passed. The score stood 3-1 in favor of Konawa. This added to Konawa's confidence, but they were disappointed when one of the stars, Earl Day, made one of his lucky hits, which made our men forget everything but pep.

The 3-1 score changed to a score of 8-4 in favor of our boys.

They were hailed as victors and now hold the county championship.

Holdenville v s. Wewoka

In the last game of the season, the fast Wewoka high school team met defeat by two scores. Both teams played a good game. Wewoka played a better game during the latter part. Give us another inning and we'd have run the score past them. The final score was: Holdenville 5; Wewoka 3.

Summary of Year '17-18

Many things have been done by W. H. S. during this year of school. We will start with athletics in naming them.

Our Basket Ball team of girls was organized during November and after several weeks hard practice we played the McLoud team at McLoud and were beaten by a slight score. Not daunted, however, we played the Butner team the next week and won.

During the other games we played we became more sure in our passes and quick turns, and finally after the first month and several weeks we were winning steadily. We had only lost three games when we went to the tournament at Edmond and the second game we played there we lost to Blackwell. This made the fourth game. After we got back we kept on playing and winning. One night we played Holdenville and lost because of the absence of our first center who has excelled any first center she ever played against during the season.

We went to the tournament at Ada during the track meet and lost to Sonewall. This was our last game and many were the regrets.

As a whole we won eighteen games out of the twenty-four played this season.

The boys' team did very well, the few games they played, but sickness of several players prevented a complete season.

The foot ball team was very strong because most of the larger boys had enlisted and it was hard to get players.

Now comes the track team. The boys, there were only three, were at a sad disadvantage, and our main strength was gone. Our star jumper, our best sprinter and our two good weight men, who both hold records in the county, as well as our literary men, had all gone to fight for "Uncle Sammy". It was for a good cause we gave them up.

Our literary society was a success for quite awhile but after a while we ceased to have it because of other work that had to be done. We had several debates and several interesting problems were solved. Our debating team was directed by Mr. Isle and Mr. Myers, and although they defended our side bravely, we lost. We have some very promising debaters in spite of all things.

A few weeks ago W. H. S. bought a Liberty Bond with the proceeds of several entertainments and as we have a great many high school boys in the army and navy, we feel that we are doing something to help win the war.

New equipment for our laboratories was purchased along the former part of the year and our physics class has progressed greatly.

As a whole we have achieved much during this school year, and everyone feels that our work was not in vain when they review the school year.

Every appreciation is due to the business men and the ladies for the support they have given us during the school year.

They have helped us in every way possible to make it a success. When we needed financial aid, they gave it; when we had entertainments for the benefit of the school, they co-operated with us and made them successes. The school board and the Parent-Teachers' association never refused to help us in any undertaking.

At the end of the Basketball season, Mr. Shands treated the girls to a little party, and Mr. King gave them tickets to the show the same night. These and many other kindnesses will not be forgotten.

TIGERS MAKE RECORD TRIP

Wewoka Basket Ball Teams Return With Five Victories

What was one of the most remarkable weeks in the history of basket ball, or any other form of athletics in W. H. S., was brought to a glorious close Saturday night with the double victory over Tecumseh at that place. It is not a frequent occurrence for a school to win five victories in one week, but such is the record chalked up by our teams last week. The feat is especially praiseworthy because of the fact that four of these victories were won on foreign territory.

Our undefeated girls' team of gladiators packed their belongings Wednesday night and left early the following morning. Thursday night found them lined up on the basket ball court of the Central State Normal at Edmond. This court has seen many a hard fought game, but not many times have two girls' teams fought out such a desperate and fast contest as was staged between our girls and the Edmond High School team.

This game was featured by swift and accurate passing, fast team work and a general high standard of basket ball. Time after time the brilliant team play of the Tiger girls brought forth admiring plaudits from the spectators. Our centers, Ramage, Casey, and Fraser, were must brilliant in this respect, but the forwards, Brown and Kiker, were not far behind them. Time after time the ball went zig-zagging down the court in a manner that delights the heart of the true lover of basket ball. It was the fast, desperate, "heady" playing of our centers that kept the ball constantly going toward the forward's territory and finally spelled "victory" to the tune of 16-18.

Friday the girls went on to Guthrie to match skill and strength with the strong girls' team there. The Guthrie team had only recently administered a severe defeat to the Edmond team and the faith of the fans at home was a little shaky. However, that dauntless fighting spirit which is the most characteristic feature of the Tiger playing, soon began to tell, and it was not long after the game started that the result was clear. This game was called pretty close, but our girls proved able to adapt themselves to any style of playing and took things "coming or going." Individual playing was not so prominent in this game. It was the team as a whole that deserves all the mention. Every girl did her part nobly and well.

While the girls were writing history up at Guthrie, the boys were setting a mark of accomplishment for them to emulate, at home. Shawnee High School sent her second team down for a tussle with our lads Friday night and they went back [Concluded on back page]

On Time Every Day

The Wewoka public schools are entering into a contest with the other three accredited schools of the county in the matter of attendance, punctuality, and number of pupils neither absent nor tardy. We expect to make the same good showing in this contest that we have been making in the athletic line. While our basket ball teams are winning against all comers, we want to show the people of the county that we can excel in other lines as well.

The only way that we can win this contest is for each pupil in school to take the responsibility upon himself to see that he himself is never absent nor tardy. Then we shall have to have also the co operation of the parents in order that pupils may not be kept at home with out some very important cause necessitating such action. Let us all together boost for the best record in attendance and promptness ever made in the history of the Wewoka school.

You have often heard the phrase, "A good loser." We speak of learning to be a good loser as one of the essentials of good sportsmanship. Now, just what are the necessary essentials? In the first place, we must remember that it is our own fault when we lose,—not the other fellow's. Secondly, it is not so important whether or not we lose, as how we lose. If we "die fighting," the world can ask no better.

No defeat is irretrievable if our first attempt is a whole-hearted one; if we do the best we know how with our first chance, the second chance will come, and find us better prepared to win because we lost fairly.

The following poem, "All in the State of Mind," aptly illustrates this statement:

All in the State of Mind

If you think you are beaten, you are,
If you think you dare not, you don't;
If you'd like to win, but you think you can't,

It's almost a cinch you won't.

If you think you'll lose, you've lost,
For out in the world we find Success begins with a fellow's will,—
It's all in the state of mind.

Full many a race is lost,
Ere ever a step is run,
And many a coward fails,
Ere even his work's begun.

Think small and you'll fall behind;
Think that you can, and you will,—
It's all in the state of mind.

If you think you are outclassed, you are,
You've got to think high to rise;
You've got to be sure of yourself before
You ever can win a prize.

Life's battles don't always go
To the stronger or faster man,
But soon or late the one who wins
Is the fellow who thinks he can.

Music in the School

Music has come to play a large part in our schools as it should in every school in the county. Many people have the idea that music is an art that only a few are permitted to indulge in and that it is entirely out of place in the school and a waste of time to have any music. It is taught in grades and many a pupil who never had the slightest appreciation for music may now be on the road to the pleasures of being able to sing and appreciate music, perhaps not to a great extent, but some, and I am sorry for the individual who gets no pleasure out of music.

We have ordered a great many new song books and use them every Monday morning at the regular chapel hour.

There is nothing like getting a good start in any kind of work and we believe that a good bunch of songs well sung is the greatest make of good cheer that is within our reach, so we sing, and if you want a good send off for the week just come up to the school building some Monday morning and help us sing.

We know of nothing better for installing "pep" into a crowd at a "pep" meeting or any other meeting than a number of good songs, so we sing "Tigers Tigers," when we want the Basket Ball team to work hard. When we want unity and determination we sing it into ourselves. General Pershing said: "Send me a singing army and I will give you a winning army."

If you don't believe that music is the language of the world just watch a crowd singing. Every fellow has his own individual way of fixing his face when he sings but they all have the same purpose in singing, just the wholesome love of singing. Party lines, personal difference, grudges and class distinction all disappear when people sing together. So does singing unite us as a school. There is no funnier sight than to watch a crowd singing and yet there is no more inspiring sight. So we sing.

Frances Boys vs. Wewoka Boys. Guthrie Girls vs. Wewoka Girls

You cant tell us that having a Supt. from the army doesn't affect the pupils. Just listen to this:

A call to colors was heard the second week in January. All those that were brave and physically fit for service came out for drill to defend the Orange and Black. As a loyal blood thirsty Tiger, Mr. Isle was promoted to Colonel the first drill.

Our first experience was with Seminole, an old rival. We went "Over the Top" at 8:00. Both boys and girls were successful. Seventeen of their shots took affect, while twenty-eight of ours damaged their Cavalry. The boys more than trebled them.

The following week another enemy appeared, listed among our past rivals. Our Infantry did splendid work. It is composed of 1st Lieutenant Ramage and Private Casey. They cover "No Man's Land" like a gas attack. Our Artillery it is claimed, has been doing the work of old. The Gunners Brown and Fraser made twenty-two of their shots take affect, while the enemy, Holdenville's nineteen shots did no damage whatever.

A new rival appeared the twenty-fourth of January about, added one more victorious battle to our long and endless column. Hartshorne put up a brave struggle but to no avail. Their Gunners and Cavalry did splendid work but their aim didn't take effect. At the close of the battle the total shots that took effect were nineteen to six in the Tigers favor.

(Concluded in the next issue)

The basket ball game will be played away from home this week. The boys left this morning for Roff, where they will play tonight. Thursday night they play Atoka. Friday the girls will meet them at Francis and both boys and girls will play there. Then the two teams will journey to Ada for games Saturday night.

Reports of the games will be sent in to Shands Drug Store, immediately after the games are played.

Who's Who in Athletics

HUGH BARHAM— The boys made no mistake when they selected Hugh to lead the team through the 1919 Basket Ball season. Hugh made his first appearance as a Tiger athletic on the 1917 foot ball team. This is his first year in basket ball.

Hugh is a strong student, a booster in everything that pertains to W. H. S., and a general all around good fellow.

On the court he is a quick, accurate and steady player and one of the most dependable men on the team. These qualities make him an ideal captain and leader. He is a Tiger of whom we are all proud.

DOROTHY FRASER. — When the girls chose Dot as captain for the present season they selected an experienced and versatile player; a "heady" field general, a fighter to the last minute, and one of the most popular students in W. H. S.

Dot has played every position on the team. At present she is rapidly developing into one of the best second centers in the State. It has been her able playing in this pivotal and important position that has aided materially in adding the successive links to the long chain of victories which the Tiger Girls have made this season.

with the report that perhaps it might be better for the first team to make the trip next time. About all that need be said about this game is the score. 47-8 is all it was. }

Then came the Grand Finale of the week. The girls returned from Guthrie early Saturday morning, were met at Shawnee by the boys and a loyal band of rooters. Reinforced, re-enthused, and recuperated, "the bunch" invaded the little village of Tecumseh. They were extended a royal reception by the Tecumseh folks. Everybody had a good time, made some friends, and what is best of all, had two of the most exciting and thrilling contests of the season.

The boys' game was played first, and in as much as our boys clearly outclassed their opponents, the result of the game was never very much in doubt. Tecumseh was game to the last, however and the game was full of exciting moments and spectacular plays. The final score stood 27-14.

It was the girls' game that furnished the sensation of the evening. The Tecumseh girls had us outclassed a little in size, and the game was not called at all close by the referee, which fact gave rise to considerable roughness. Both teams played on the best of terms, however, and the rivalry was fierce and keen. Tecumseh took the lead from the start and maintained it through the first half and a part of the second. Then the superior endurance and knowledge of the finer points of the game on the part of the Wewoka girls, their ability to adapt themselves to any style of game set by an official, and above all, that fighting spirit that has pulled them out of so many bad beginnings—all these enabled them to gradually forge to the front until the score was tied; and then in the closing minutes of the game came the count that finally spelled victory. The game ended with a score of 11-9. In this game the Tiger guards, J. Fraser and Treadwell, played strong, breaking up pass after pass from the strong Tecumseh centers who were putting up the classiest kind of a struggle against their fast and "heady" opponents. It was again the team, fighting as a whole, that finally won the hard fought contest.

Thus ended one of the most successful trips ever made by a Tiger team. It was not only a success in respect to the number of victories won, but many other things combined to make those three days memorable in the minds of Wewoka fans and players. The girls were especially enthusiastic in their praise of the hospitality shown them in each of the cities visited. Everywhere they were received with the most cordial and friendly kind of entertainment. The teams played against proved themselves good losers. These are the things that, more than anything else, make competitive athletics worth while. We shall do our best to return the courtesy and favors when these teams play their return games in Wewoka.

Why "no," replied Miss Baker.

Ruby gave a few finishing touches and repeated her question.

Miss Baker sniffed the air and assured her she didn't smell anything.

This week-end added three more basket ball games to the credit of W. H. S., the girls winning two and the boys winning one and losing one.

Friday noon Tecumseh boys and girls arrived for a double-header Friday night. The girls' game began promptly at 8:15. This game was exceedingly fast. The first half ending with Wewoka leading by a score of 12 to 5. Both teams had lots of pep at the beginning of the last half which ended the game 12 to 28 in favor of W. H. S.

The boys game was not very exciting, as the Wewoka boys ran the score up to 3 to 21.

Late Saturday afternoon both teams of W. H. S. left in cars to play Holdenville boys and girls. The boys game started at 7:30 sharp. Wewoka boys played a good game but were beaten 7 to 19 by Holdenville.

The girls played immediately after the boys' game. The score was very close at the end of the first half. The last half showed the real material in the players on both sides. The final score was 13 to 21, Wewoka leading.

This victory makes ten straight wins chalked up to the credit of Wewoka girls; while they have not lost one.

After the basket ball games, Wewoka players were entertained at the residence of Mrs. Scott and Prof. Beard. Wewoka people left declaring that these Holdenville people were good entertainers.

The Tournament

W. H. S. was represented at the tournament at Edmond by the second best team in the state. The personnel of the team was: Dorothy Fraser, Clara Ramage, Ruth Brown, Lois Kiker, Jessie Fraser, Ava Younger, Mary Thomason, Ruby Bass, and Opal Casey. This is the strongest athletic team of any kind that has ever been put out by the W. H. S. and we are certainly proud of them.

The team left on Wednesday March 12 in as good a shape for tournament work as past hard working could make it. There were fourteen teams at the tournament representing every section of the state so the winners of this tournament were virtually the state champions. There were but about three teams that were not first class teams and Wewoka played three of the best, so we have reason to be proud of our record at the meet although we did not come out winners.

The first team we played was Luther. The game was slow, possibly on account of the large court, and Wewoka won 8-26. The second game we played was with the Perry bunch. This was a hard fought game and Wewoka, true to form, won again 9-18. All the teams had been eliminated by this time but Wewoka and Heavener, from the far eastern part of the state. Here is where we met our Waterloo. This Heavener team had two of the best forwards that ever stepped on a court and they can be given the credit for winning the game almost by themselves. Wewoka had come up to the finals with the cleanest record for playing of any team at the tournament. Fewer fouls were called on Wewoka players than any other team. They had won the hearts of almost every spectator and compelled the admiration of all.

Wewoka Wins Cup at Ada

Last Friday and Saturday, March 14 and 15, the Tiger boys contested with the other schools of this district for the championship and also to determine the representative to Edmond.

There were eleven teams entered and every team, with a fine record behind it, went into the fray determined to win.

In the first round Shawnee defeated Milburn, Roff defeated Ada, Tecumseh won from Holdenville, Coalgate defeated Chandler, and the Tigers defeated Dale by a score of 45-15. Dale started off with a rush and scored three points before the Tiger boys could get accustomed to the surroundings, but after the first few minutes the Tigers were never in danger.

In the second round Shawnee won from Francis and Roff from Tecumseh. The third round was probably the hardest fought of the four rounds. Wewoka played Roff and there was never more excitement in any tournament than there was during that game. The final score was 31-16 in favor of Wewoka. Shawnee won from Coalgate in a runaway, the score at the end of the first half being 30-3.

This left two teams to fight out in the finals for the championship — Shawnee and Wewoka.

At ten o'clock Saturday morning the two teams met and one of the hardest fought battles of the tournament was on. Wewoka took the lead in the first minute of play and they were never headed, although victory was at no time certain.

In the last few minutes the Tigers pulled away from their opponents and won 32-22. The work of our guards, Campbell and Christian, was excellent, never allowing an open shot.

The bright star of our team was Earl Seran, our wonderful center. The goal shooting of Captain Barham and Seran

Somebody said that it couldn't be done,
But he with a chuckle replied
That maybe it couldn't, but he would be one

Who wouldn't say so till he'd tried.
So he buckeled right in, with the trace of a grin

On his face. If he worried he hid it.
He started to sing as he tacked the
thing

That couldn't be done, and he did it.

Somebody scoffed: "Oh, you'll never do that;

At least no one ever has done it."

But he took off his coat and he took off his hat,

And the first thing we knew he'd begun it;

With the lift of his chin and a bit of a grin,

Without any doubting or quibbling;
He started to sing as he tacked the
thing

That couldn't be done, and he did it.

There are thousands to tell you it cannot be done,

There are thousands who prophesy
failure;

There are thousands to point out to you
one by one,

The dangers that wait to assail you;

But just buckle in with a bit of a grin,
Then take your coat off and go to it;

Just start in to sing as you tackle the
thing

That "cannot be done," and you'll do it.

The Track Meet

Now that the balmy days of spring are approaching and the little sprigs of green grass betoken the end of winter's seige, students thoughts are lightly turning to preparation for the Track Meet.

Once again we turn our minds to welcome the long anticipated affair which will decide the best school in the County, both in athletics and scholarship. The historic halls of W. H. S. will resound once more to the sound of singing voices and the sonorous accents of the orator; while the track and athletic field will be covered with aspiring athletes trying

Wewoka intends to have a full representation in everything this year and we hope to carry off our share of the prizes in this meet. It will be held at Seminole on the 28th and 29th of April this year and we intend to invade the Big Chief's camps with the most bloodthirsty set of Tigers that worthy brave has ever yet seen. The preliminary meet will be held about the first of April and all contestants from Wewoka must be at the appointed place on time if they expect to enter the County Meet.

It might be well to mention that the coming of spring seems to induce a spirit of laziness in some of our students which is highly to be censured in this time when so much depends upon our putting forth every effort.

It we are to win this meet we must get down to business and work hard.
Instead of allowing this surplus of energy and good feeling to evaporate in petty pranks and annoyances, why not put it into some good practical use for winning new honors for the Tiger Clan?
Let's all watch our grades and see that they do not fall any lower and at the same time be doing our best in whatever other things we may be competing.
There is no need of sacrificing one for the good of the other and it is far better to excel in both. All together, now, Tigers! Let's go!

Dear Editor:

I have just finished reading a copy of "The Little Tiger" the first issue that I have seen, and enjoyed its contents very much. It made me thank of the days that used to be, when I was a member of the Tiger tribe and I sincerely wish that I had those days to live over again.

I would like to give every member of the girls basket ball team a kiss (if permissible) and congratulate them on the fine team that they have this year.
And your coach, Mr Isle, deserves more credit then can ever be given him for piloting the team to so many victories.

When and where is the county track meet to be held this year? If nothing happens I will be there with some of that old "Tiger pep," and I hope to see the "orange and black" float across the tape first in every event. Who is playing tennis this year for us?

You might inform me as to the members in the Senior class and the date of commencement and everything.

I am still interested in our dear old W. H. S. and want to keep in touch with it as long as I can.

While I am here writing this note our Tiger team is surely mopping up the Sulphur girls and the boys are scrubbing the necks of their apponents I hope.

I will appreciate it very much if you can give me the information that I have asked of you.

In the Land of Pleasure

By Jessie Fraser

Mary Pleasure-Seeker was a beautiful girl but she always wanted to have a good time.

One spring afternoon as she was lying in the hammock reading a book, she suddenly said, "Oh dear, if I could only go to a place where there is nothing to do except have a glorious time."

She had hardly spoken when she heard a squeaky voice close to her ear say: "Come with me; I will take you to the Land of Pleasure. She was jerked to her feet and hurried away as fast as possible to The Land of Pleasure.

When she arrived she saw brilliant lights, girls dancing, eating and talking gaily. She joined them in their games but soon became tired. She asked for a place to rest but was told that they were not allowed to rest for several hours yet.

Three pretty but rather tired girls came up to where Mary was standing and said, "Come with us, we need you too play tennis with us."

"Oh, dear no! I am too tired," said Mary. But she was pulled along by the girls and forced to play for nearly two hours.

Having arrived at the lunch room, Mary seated herself at the table and started eating, as after her exertion of playing tennis had made her quite hungry. She had hardly finished when she was accosted by a handsome young man.

"Pardon me, miss, but may I have the honor of conducting you to the ball tonight?" he said, in pleasing manner.

"I think I will not go; I am too tired," answered Mary, gloomily.

"Yes, but you are compelled to go and dance until midnight anyway," cleverly retorted the young man.

"At any rate, I do not intend to go with you, for I don't know you," said Mary saucily.

"But my dear miss, in the Land of Pleasure you have to go with the first one that asks you. I will call at seven o'clock. Be ready."

And off he hurried to seek his companions. When he joined them he told them of the beautiful but queer young lady.

At seven o'clock she was hurried to the ball and after much gaiety she returned.

"Ouh!" yelled Mary, and up she jumped, only to find herself at home and the Land of Pleasure only a dream.

Thank God every morning when you get up that you have something to do that day, which must be done whether you like it or not, being forced to work, and forced to do your best, will breed in you, a hundred virtues which the idle never know.

Charles Kingsley.

Much as worthy friends add to the happiness and value of life, we must in main depend upon ourselves, and every one is his own best friend or worst enemy.

Who's Who in Athletics

WILLIAM NICHOLSON.

Wm. Nicholson, better known as Bill, is probably one of the most well known and popular members of the 1919 squad. Bill's smile and genial good humor go straight to the heart; he has won friends in every school in which W. H. S. has played. Bill's position is forward and the way he rolls the ball in the basket is a "sight." He is a hard and consistent worker and is one "Tiger" who has the interest in the school and not his own pleasure at heart. In the best tribute that can be paid to him, is that he is not afraid of work. Whenever there is anything to be done you will find Bill, "Johnnie on the spot." He never shirks and never complains.

JOHN LONG.

In Wewoka John Long, the "Tigers" have one of the speediest players that ever "stepped" on a basket ball court.

He is an accurate goal shooter and an invulnerable guard. He plays the game with his whole soul and never gives up until the last whistle is blown. In the midst of many hard fought games, when the excitement runs high and the "tide of battle is ebbing and flowing" may always be heard, John's thrilling battle cry, "Freeze on to the ball, Let's get the pep, gang." John rightly deserves the honor of being pep leader for the Tiger clan whether in the game or on the side lines he electrifies his followers until the Tiger den fairly reeks with enthusiasm.

LOIS KIKER.

Playing her first game for W. H. S. last year, Lois has developed from a "sub" to one of the best players on the team. She is one girl who never seems to be spoiled by success. Each succeeding game her floor work becomes faster and her shots at the basket more frequent, more accurate and more deadly. It is the reliability at every stage of the game that has made her such a valuable member of the 1919 team, Lois is a team player and not an individual "star," she never hesitates to pass the ball when there are chances for making goal by doing so. Lois enjoys the honor (?) of being the baby on the team, and naturally creates all the "fussing."

JESSIE FRASER.

The "fighting midget" is the title by which W. H. S. fans love to designate this member of the Tiger team. Jessie makes up in grit, determination and speed for what she lacks in size. She is the youngest member on the team but you would never know it by the way she plays. She is in the game all the time, never gives up, and that forward is indeed a good one who succeeds in scoring many goals on or around her. Jessie is just a "wee Freshie" and in the language of sideliners will be some player before she graduates from the Tiger Clan.

The Tournament—Con.

Many were the guesses and prophecies as to which of the teams would win and many the time did the writer hear the remark that Wewoka ought to win if real Basket Ball counted for anything. The game was played and Heavener won by a score of 14 to 29. They had defeated every other team they had played by an enormous score but they failed to repeat it on Wewoka. The members of the Heavener team had been playing together for three years; they were taller and outweighed Wewoka by a large margin. Their forwards especially being tall and disasterously accurate. We come out second and are proud of the fact. As to the playing of real Basket Ball, superb teamwork, accurate and fast floor work, clean playing, general ability, Wewoka had anything at the tournament outclassed. It was remarked by a high official of the tournament that two better centers than the Wewoka pair had never stepped on the Edmond court. Our girls have made a wonderful record this year having played nineteen games and lost only one and tied one. We are proud of them.

STATE TOURNAMENT

The Wewoka Boys' Basket Ball Champions of district four entered the tournament at Edmond last Friday and Saturday. Eight teams, each champions of their respective districts, met there to play for the championship of the State. At two-thirty the drawing was made and Atoka was to play Blackwell, at 3:30; Wewoka played Guthrie at 4:30; Muskogee played Anadarko at 8:00 p. m.; Tulsa played Thomas at 9:00 p. m.

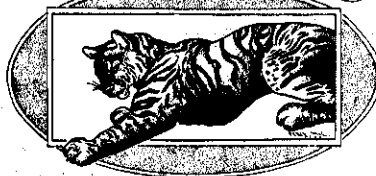

In the first game Atoka won from Blackwell through superior ability to shoot goals, although Blackwell out-classed them in team work.

At 4:30 the Guthrie and Wewoka teams appeared on the court and Wewoka seemed to be the favorites with the crowd although Guthrie had brought a large band of rooters with them. The game opened with a rush, Guthrie scoring six points before Wewoka was able to cage a field goal. Seran was getting the tip over Hollemar but the Tigers did not seem to make much headway against the Guthrie guards. The game was very fast, although neither side was able to cage the ball consistently. Campbell, the fiery Tiger guard, was covering Smith, the star (?) forward from Guthrie in fine manner. The Tigers seemed to play in streaks but they were never able to overcome the small Guthrie lead. A few minutes before the end of the game, Guthrie started scoring and piled up an eight-point lead and before the Tigers could come back the game was over, with Guthrie the winners by a score of 30-22.

Thomas defeated Tulsa, and Anadarko defeated Muskogee in the first round. In the second round Anadarko defeated Thomas, and Atoka defeated Guthrie. On Saturday the final game between Anadarko and Atoka was played.

Or hide your face from the light of day
With a craven soul and fearful?
Oh, a trouble's a ton, or a trouble's an ounce,
Or a trouble is what you make it.
And it isn't the fact that you're hurt that counts,
But only how did you take it?

You are beaten to earth? Well, well, what's that?
Come up with a smiling face.
It's nothing against you to fall down flat,
But to lie there—that's disgrace.
The harder you're thrown, why the higher you bounce;
Be proud of your blackened eye!
It isn't the fact that you're licked that counts;
It's how did you fight and why?
And though you be done to death, why then?
If you battled the best you could;
If you played your part in the world of men,
Why, the critic will call it good.
Death comes with a crawl or comes with a pounce,
And whether he's slow or spry,
It isn't the fact that you're dead that counts,
But only, how did you die?

THE SPECIAL EDITION

The last annual edition of the Little Tiger which we always make the special edition is to be this year the best of all. The purpose is to give the students and other interested boosters of the school some lasting record of the school year. We have accomplished several things this year that we are well proud of and we will, through the special, give an outline of the entire accomplishment of the school year. It is always well to have an ideal before people and especially the students of the land, so this little paper will keep the record of 1918-19 before the student body of Wewoka as stimulus for work in the future.

Besides the above mentioned the paper gives special opportunity to the student body in the way of writing its own record. Each class will be represented with a write-up, also there will be a general write-up of the whole school. The different student organizations must of necessity gain a prominent place in the paper, for it is through them that the interest and social life of the student body is kept on a rising plain. Athletics will receive its proper space, which this year is likely to be several pages, for never have we had such teams as we have had this year. Various other items will be the county meet, cartoons, ads., jokes, kodaks, prospects for next year, the Jazz quartet, the Faculty and other minor details.

The school has always taken a delighted interest in the Little Tiger. It is almost wholly a product of student effort which insures its being more to be desired by the students themselves. This is the third year of the life of The Little Tiger; it has recorded our achievements, our defeats, our faults and our virtues, our smiles, and our tears. The "orange and black" bunch that stands behind this publication have indeed a lot of the Tiger spirit and some of his nature.

Students, do you remember that resolution — "To do my best in everything coming and going in 1919?" That included all that you do, and one thing you should do, you are not doing: It is Keeping the study hall in order. Do not tear paper into tiny bits, then throw it on the floor for the other fellow to pick up, for it may lie there. Each student should make it his duty to see that all paper etc. is kept off the floor, in order to make the study hall look like it is used by Wewoka High School Students, instead of pigs.

Stop a minute every day and ask yourself these questions: "Have I done my part today?" "Couldn't I do better?" "Am I keeping my books arranged neatly in my desk?" And if not,

Do It Now

People never know what they can do till they try,
So why should they dawdle and wait?
For he who procrastinates never succeeds,

He dallies too long, 'tis too late.
All get their deserts in the long run thru life,

As ever the failures avow;
So, students, learn the lesson and lay it to heart—

There's something to do—Do It Now!

A FAIRY STORY UP TO DATE The Magic Basket Ball

Jane Murdock was on her way to the basket ball hall. Every evening for a week she and the other members of the team had attended an hour's hard practice at this hall.

So far, they had won every match game, but it had been hard work, and now, on the night of their last game, the game that was to decide what team would be the state champions, the girls were all tired and despondent, hardly hoping to win.

Jane's uncle had promised her that if they won every game, and she made a certain average in all her grades each month, he would send her to college the next year. But with the girls all in the humor they were she had almost given up hope.

As she walked along she noticed an old man coming towards her. He was holding a chain fastened to a little dog that trotted along in front of him.

Jane saw as they came nearer that the man was blind.

The man knew he was passing some one by the way the dog barked, and after they had exchanged greetings he asked her to show him the way to a residence several blocks in the opposite direction.

At first she wanted to tell him that she was already late to the game and would not have time, but, remembering one of her new year's resolutions, she turned and went with the man.

When they came to the gate the old man thanked her and told her that in return for her kindness, the first thing wished for after leaving him would be granted her.

She smiled and hurried on toward the hall.

On the way, while thinking of the game and wondering if they would win, she began wishing that they had a ball to play with that would seem just like any other ball to their opponents, but would always go just where any of their team wanted it to, and always go in the goal when one of their forwards tried a shot.

The thought had hardly formed itself in her mind when something fell at her feet, and picking it up, she found it to be a basket ball. She remembered what the old man had said to her and hurried on faster than ever.

The coach wondered why she was so anxious for them to play with her new ball that night and was pleasantly surprised that their score was so much larger than the opposing team's at the end of the game.

"I is," began B. B.

"I am," promptly corrected Miss Baker.

"I am the ninth letter of the alphabet," finished B. B.

BEGINNING OF SCHOOL

School opened the 8th of Sept. with indications from every source that point to a record breaking year.

The enthusiasm of the teachers, the determination of the students, and the interest of the people at large are sure to blend in a single effort that will terminate in success.

There are several things that attract special attention at the beginning of this year, but the foremost is the increased enrollment. The thing that should be of the most interest to the people of the community is the fact that the high school shows an increase of about seventy per cent over that of last year. The enrollment in high school is now 67 while at the close of Sept. last year the enrollment was only 41. This is unusual as the increase is usually in the lower grades.

The enrollment in the different grades at date are as follows:

Primary	24
1 B	11
1 A	12
2 B	13
2 A	18
3 B	14
3 A	14
4 B	8
4 A	12
5 B	13
5 A	18
6 B	25

7 A	20
8 B	22
TOTAL	243
High School—
Freshmen	19

Juniors	10
Seniors	10
TOTAL	67

This makes a total enrollment of 315 over that of 266 at the end of September last year.

OBITUARY

Our school has been greatly saddened by the death of Annarene Barmham who has been one of our beloved schoolmates. Annarene began her schooling here in Wewoka and was a member of the Eighth Grade graduating class this past spring. Annarene was sixteen years old August nineteenth, nineteen hundred nineteen. She was dearly loved by all her class mates and what can be more suitable to express her beautiful life than Wordsworth's quotation of the beautiful flower:

When smitten by the morning ray,
I see thee rise alert and gay,
Then cheerful flower thy spirits play

With kindred gladness.

The school wishes to extend their heart felt sympathy to the bereaved father, mother and brothers.

EDITORIAL

Get acquainted! Two common words, is it not? But bear them in mind. We have many new students this year; many who are just entering high school and who have not had an opportunity to mix with a large crowd in a study hall.

It is true that the study hall is crammed, but there is room to get acquainted; make these new students feel at home by being gracious and thoughtful of them.

Give to these students the respect they rightfully expect. Manifest a spirit of harmony and close cooperation among you. Sometimes new students get discouraged on account of lack of sociability shown to them. Consecrate a part of your sociability to each of them. Treating new scholars like they had been in W. H. S. for years must be one of the essential qualifications of every student. Get it!

BACK TO SCHOOL

This is the testing time for many boys and girls. The lure of wages, the desire to go out in the world to accomplish something important, the slow grind of classroom work, the necessity of contributing to the family income, all these motives that are working powerfully at this time of year on boys and girls everywhere.

To a large extent the boys and girls have this problem in their own hands. For the most part they must settle it for themselves.

We only hope that most of them can be made to see this themselves.

The wise thing to do is to use youth's golden hours and get every bit of education possible.

There are positive things, the school and the community can do to help each boy and girl who has quit or is going to quit school. To make the right decision.

First all efforts must be made to improve the school in order to give educational opportunities of every sort, regardless of whether the opportunities sought are "the regular thing" or not. Every boy who is kept in school by a good practical course in manual training will profit by the other things the school has to offer and so continue his education.

The average parent can help by discarding the idea "what was good enough for me and my father is good enough for my boy".

It is not!

The world moves. The parent who nowadays deliberately lets his child leave school at the end of the eighth grade, or the compulsory school period is practically condemning him to a life of failure.

The fact that a few emerge without an education must not blind us to the fact that there are thousands of young men and women who have the finest natural qualities but can never rise because of their lack of education.

The following should be told to every youth: That we are soon coming to the point in this country if we have not already reached it, when a boy or girl without a high school education will be hopelessly handicapped in getting along.

Certainly every boy and girl in the United States should have as a minimum a high school education. That is the least the nation can ask.

TIGER ATHLETICS '19

Our prospects for an extraordinarily successful season in athletics are exceedingly good or seem to be so far.

We have had two teams reporting for foot ball practice during the last week, a thing entirely unheard of before in Tiger history.

Having heard of our successful teams, without a scrub team for scrimmage, what will the team be with one? Time and a game or two will tell.

Our material this year is of the best. For foot ball we have Nicholson, Miller, Barham Frederick Walker and Sehan as veterans of the Tiger squad of adys gone by.

Our other material is fully as good. We have Christain Day, Kennerly, Chamblee and Patten. The former tho not of the squad of old "has it in him" so to say, by record in Basket ball and track, to make a good man at quarter.

Day, Kennerly and Patten are good material and will be good men at their positions this year or later. Rogers is a prospective man for end.

We have with us this year as an edition an especially good man by the name of Sanders. He has had wide and varied experience on the football field, having played on the Watonga High School team and two years on an army squad so we expect great things from him in the coming year.

The position of the men have not been determined so far, but will be brought into prominence in the line up for the first game.

Here we must give some mention of the second team for reporting to practice punctually thus helping the team now and in years to come. Aldridge, Winn, Douglas, Christain and other good men are on the team and showing the "stuff" for foot ball players.

Our schedule for the beginning of the season is very promising:

Oct. 3rd—Holdenville.

Oct. 24th—Shawnee.

Nov. 14th—McAlester.

These games and several others finding schedule will serve to complete one of the best foot ball seasons in history.

This year's foot ball squad started practicing under a new coach and he has been "putting 'em thru" from the "Oh's" and "Ouch's" heard as sore muscles were brought into play about the second week out.

And the coach while speaking of him, is one of the best in these parts as shown by his accomplishment with the students of the Oklahoma School for the deaf.

The team from that school was known and feared over their part of the state. Mr. Riggins, being able to produce such a team from that material, should turn out some team here. He is from Southwestern Normal at Weatherford and has had one season's coaching under Bennie Owen.

Thus equipped he has come to make an all victorious team of our squad—or so we hope—Here's to the coach and a successful season in Foot Ball.

STUDENT COUNCIL

At the first meeting of the Student Council quite a number of affairs of importance to the school were taken up. Among those discussed was the possibility of having school take up at 8:15 in the morning and adjourn at 3:15 in the afternoon. This would allow more time for foot ball practice and would also be a help to most of the students in the way of studying, because in the morning their minds are fresh and active and things do not drag along as they sometimes will late in the evening.

Another matter discussed was a proposed reception to be given by the high school for the purpose of getting the new teachers and scholars acquainted.

A staff for the Little Tiger was chosen. Those elected are listed on page two of this issue.

SHOULD AULD ACQUAINTANCE BE FORGOT

There are only two students who attended W. H. S. last year who are not here this year. Coy Puckett has moved to Allen, Okla., and has entered the high school there. She was a loyal member of the "Tiger Clan" and expects to complete her high school course here. Her being one of the first to subscribe for the Little Tiger this year is proof of her devotion for W. H. S. Coy never takes life seriously. Her chief duty in study hall was entertaining freshmen boys. She will be missed by the Tigers as she was one of the best natured and most reliable members of Wewoka High.

"I do wish they wouldn't call me fat."

Ava Younger was a loyal student and booster to Wewoka High. She was a steady and reliable guard on the '19 Tiger team. Ava usually takes her time but when a basketball comes her way she gets up and moves. After a basketball season is over she is evincing a great interest in debating—and debaters. She is now attending the Normal at Ada and later she will teach in a rural school. We regret very much that ~~Ava is not with us this term but she~~ promised not to forget her many friends here.

Wewoka, Oklahoma, Oct. 8, 1919

OUR FACULTY

Superintendent W. W. Isle: Mr. Isle is known by scores of people throughout the state. He has spent most of his life in Edmond, graduating from Edmond Normal in 1909. Since then he has been a successful teacher, principal and superintendent in many schools of Oklahoma. He holds an A. B. degree from O. U. and has a special diploma in Educational Administration from teacher's college, Columbia University, New York City. In addition to field administration, Mr. Isle also made a special study of the adolescent period of a child's life and of public school athletics. He has coached the successful athletic teams which have put Wewoka on the map as a school center during the past two years. This makes Mr. Isle's third year as superintendent of Wewoka schools. Everyone who has had his teaching during these years will come away much better for the experience.

Mr. Riggins: Our efficient high school principal, spent his early life in the "blue grass" regions of Kentucky. For the last nine years he has made his home in Oklahoma. He is a graduate of Southwestern Normal at Weatherford. He spent last year at O. U. This year in Wewoka, he comes highly recommended as a citizen and teacher. Mr. Riggins coached the foot ball team at Oklahoma school for the deaf. He developed from the deaf and dumb students a team far surpassing anything the school has ever experienced. Mr. Riggins is a man who puts his whole soul into his work and we are sure he will make a wonderful success in the Wewoka schools.

Miss Irma Geer: The teacher of Science and Mathematics, is a true Oklahoman. Her home is in Clinton, Oklahoma. She holds a two year high school certificate from O. U.

During the past three years she has been teaching Science and Mathematics in the public schools at Tuttle, Oklahoma. Her county superintendent recommends her as one of the very best teachers in Grady County. While at the University and during her teaching career, Miss Geer has made a special study of expression and presentation of plays. Her amiable disposition and winning personality, combined with her good teaching qualities, makes a favorable impression on everyone.

Miss Louise Cook: The teacher of English and French is from Checotah, Oklahoma. She studied one year at Southwestern University of Texas; and two years at O. U. She holds a two year high school certificate from this institution. In addition to her work in English, Miss Cook did considerable work in the fine arts department, where she made a study of plays and games and other phases of physical education. Miss Cook is an able leader in every activity. Her winning smile and amiable disposition have won the favors of all.

Miss Christine Finney: The teacher of Domestic Science, is a graduate of Home Economics department of O. B. U., Shawnee. In this school she has been an exceptionally strong student. She also received her Bachelor of Oratory degree from this institution. Miss Finney in addition to Domestic Science, teaches reading and spelling in the seventh and eighth grades and has proved herself a worthy teacher.

Miss Clara Howard: The teacher of Music and Art was a member of the faculty last year, so most of us have already heard of her good work. She holds a two year state certificate from A. & M., Stillwater, where she devoted most of her time to the study

ALL OUT FOR THE BOX SUPPER

Owing to the fact that the school is low on funds, many things such as library books, equipment of different kinds for the grades, and general repair, must either be neglected or met from a different source.

We must not let ourselves think for a moment that we can follow the former course, so let us see what is in store for us in the latter.

There has been arranged a number of school activities for the raising of funds for these things. None of which will go for athletics.

The first of these performances is a box supper to be held Saturday night, October 11th. Full arrangements will be announced later.

We invite the support of every one in this undertaking, and feel sure that you will respond, as the people of Wewoka always respond to any thing that is in the interest of the school.

"THE LYCEUM COURSE"

One of the most important features of education offered to the people of Wewoka this year is the Lyceum Course. Most of us are familiar with the Redpath-Horner Company which will stage a six number course for us this year, the first number of which will be presented Oct. 24, by Laurant & Co. Other numbers are presented by Wm. Mather Lewis, Nov. 15; Southern Musicians, Dec. 2; V. S. Watkins, Jan. 2; Yanks Quartette, Jan. 31; and May Shumway Enderly, Mar. 13.

The first number, Laurant & Co., consists of the Great Magician Laurant, who for more than seventeen years has been a Chautauqua and Lyceum headliner.

During the past season, however, Mr. Laurant has accepted no Lyceum engagements, he having devoted all of his time to entertaining our boys

EDITORIAL

Now that the foot ball season is open every one to some extent is alert and full of "pep". What is pep? It is that irresistible and boisterous feeling that begins to march proudly thru the school building and foot ball field when the first game is about to take place. It flies thru the air in the form of yells along the side lines.

First a wave of colors, then comes the yells and songs led by able leaders, which make the rivals feel as if they were to be defeated. It is a great deal of unclassified noise and intensity of feeling.

Sometimes the said pep gets sleepy and dies down when the score runs up fifty to nothing, in favor of the rivals. No! this should not happen. Pep should not become subdued by disappointment at our own loss. Don't let it be led from the field as quiet as a mouse.

Keep this enthusiasm with you from the beginning to the end. Put it in your school work. When you go to your school work with pep in your company everything is more easily grasped. You will gain the three V's—vim, vigor and vitality; you will feel like you have enough steam to last a life-time, therefore make pep last the whole year around.

The following poem, written by Bostwick, will aid you in drawing your own conclusions on pep:

"PEP"

Vigor, vitality, vim and punch—

That's pep!

The courage to act on a sudden hunch

That's pep!

The nerve to tackle the hardest thing
With feet that climb and hands that cling,

And a heart that never forgets to sing,

That's pep!

Sand and grit in a concrete base—

That's pep!

Friendly smile on an honest face,

That's pep!

The spirit that helps when another's down,

That knows how to scatter the blackest frown,

That loves its neighbor and loves its town,

That's pep!

To say "I will" for you know you can,
That's pep!

To look for the best in every man,
That's pep!

To meet each thundering knock-out blow,

And come back with a laugh, because you know,

You'll get the best of the whole darned show—

That's pep!

Are you Tigers? Well, perhaps you are in some respect, but are you one hundred per cent Tigers? No, most of you lack something. If you are to be one hundred per cent Tiger you must be loyal to your school, a booster for the Little Tiger. In order to be a booster for The Little Tiger you must subscribe for The Little Tiger. It is your opportunity to make this paper a true representation of the school.

You, the reader of this column, are you a hundred per cent Tiger? If not—

"IT'S UP TO YOU!"

"Good schools are not made by those who're afraid that some other's blood has more red,
If each student works and nobody shirks, any school can be raised from the dead,

So beginning today, let each student pay, the necessary amount for a subscription or two,

Fix a smile on your face and quicken your pace, 'twill be good for your school and you.

BOQUET

September 29th, 1919.

The Little Tiger Publishing Co.,

Wewoka, Okla.,

Greetings:—

Find enclosed herewith one (1) dollar which entitles the sender to one years subscription to the Little Tiger.

I received the first edition of the paper and the contents show that Wewoka High School has something behind it in which to make school life worth while. As I am a lover of good school work and like to see progress made for the upbuilding of better boys and girls, I would like for every issue of this paper to come into my hands.

I am not a native of Wewoka, neither do I call it my home town, but I might look upon it as my adopted town, as it is the home of my mother.

It seems from the tone of your paper that you are out for a great year's work this year. I wish you the best of success in all your undertakings, I remain,

Respectfully yours,

Joe W. George,

Sec. "B" 135th Observation Squadron,
Post Field, Fort Sill, Okla.

DESCRIPTION OF FEATURES

All people as you know, have a number of features; some are good and some bad, but the one of which I am going to write is neither good nor bad. It is one that all boys are likely to notice, that of some young lady when walking has a continued zig zag in her walk, or a twisting of the body. It looks as if she were afraid of the last step she had just taken, but I suppose she is only trying to walk proper.

FRED'S SANITARY CAFE

In the days of old, when the "Little Tiger" was in its first year of action we had a teacher by the name of Carrie Starnes. She was a teacher whom everybody loved and appreciated, and many of the old students have looked forward to the possibility of getting her back some day as a teacher of W. H. S. But Presto!

Someone has been lucky and captured her as a wife. She is now Mrs. Harold D. Dingler. They will make their home at Edgemont, South Dakota.

The students extend their heartiest greetings to them for a long and happy married life.

W. H. S. 82; HOLDENVILLE 6.

Well we've done it—won the first game of the season, from Holdenville, and that so easily that it will nearly make us over-confident if we don't watch out.

The game was caled at four o'clock and was played in quarters, and was very one sided of course, in favor of W. H. S., tho Holdenville did have a very good team. Our Tiger punch and pep just naturally got the best of them. The line up for the first half was as follows:

E. Seran, fullback,
Sanders, left half,
Campbell, right half,
Christian, quarterback,
Long, left end,
Walker, left tackle,
Nicholson, center
J. Seran, right guard,
Miller, right guard,
Barham, (captain) right end.

This line-up was intact thru the first quarter; later the entire squad was worked in and shown off to the crowd. Kennerly, Patten, Aldridge, Hill and B. Christian all got a chance to share in the laurels of the victory. These men all showed up well and threaten to endanger the positions of the regulars if they don't "watch their step."

Every man on the Tiger line-up played good ball and deserves to be mentioned among the list of "notables". Captain Barham led in scoring with four touchdowns. Two of these were made after long dashes down the field and sensational catches from Sanders. Earl Seran made three touch-downs, two of them by fierce line plunges, the other after intercepting a forward pass and a spectacular broken field run of forty yards to the goal. Campbell scored three touch-downs and kicked two goals after touch-downs. His long end runs were features of the game. He proved a consistent ground gainer thruout, and never failed when called upon to advance the ball. Time after time he encircled the opposing end for twenty, thirty, and even more, yards. Sanders played a fine passing game at left half and scored two goals after touchdowns. His work in running interference and on the defensive was especially noticeable. Long played well at left end, and was deadly accurate in snatching forward passes from the air. He made a getaway with one of them for a touchdown. Nicholson, in addition to his steady and consistent work at center, broke thru the opposing line and fell on a fumbled ball for a touchdown. One of the surprises of the evening was when Kennerly tore thru the line, seized the ball on a blocked punt, and made a touchdown with no interference. This tall "slivver" is sure to be heard from sooner or later.

Christain deserves a large amount of praise for the victory; His head work and generalship was a reature of the game. He showed himself a second Napoleon by the way he handled the team and conducted the offensive. Miller, Shepard, Walker, and J. Seran proved themselves line-men of no ordinary ability. Their work in breaking up the opposing plays and in opening holes for the advance of our backfield, deserves much praise.

For Holdenville Reed at half, Thomas at end, and Padgett at quarter did the best work. It was Thomas who received a long forward pass and broke thru the Wewoka defense for their lone touch-down.

The game was refereed by Norvelle who gave a square deal all round. Both sides were well pleased with his work. Coach Strother of the Holdenville team, acted as umpire.

The Girl's Pep bunch sure had some "punch"—also the oranges—and were right there with the goods. We are very proud of the girls. The gate receipts were more at this game than we have ever taken in at a foot ball game. This shows the spirit of the business men of Wewoka and we, the school, certainly appreciate their support.

The next game will be with Wewoka High, on Friday October 10th, there. On October 17th we play Okemah High. We have old scores to settle with both these teams, so watch us go.

Coach Riggins' squad certainly shows the pep and will, after a little more training, be displaying a class of foot ball that will be hard to beat.

The boys will go after their work harder than ever this week. They expect to make things exceedingly interesting for some teams in the contest for the championship of this district.

There were no accidents of any kind to mar the evening' game. We hope that every contest of the year will prove equally clean and successful, from this standpoint.

At present we have a good start of 82-6.

STUDENT COUNCIL

At the second meeting of the student council, a number of things were discussed and the officers were elected.

Those elected were:

President.....G. E. Sanders
Vice President.....Violet Dyer
Secretary.....Ruth Brown

Among the things discussed was making plans for a box supper. It was finally decided upon and will be held at the armory. Numerous things have been planned for entertainment by the talented students and patrons.

Several plays will be staged by the students of Wewoka High School during the year. They have started on one play which will be rendered in the near future.

The subject of a Literary Society was brought up but was postponed until another meeting.

H. S. GLEE CLUB

The H. S. Girls Glee Club met Friday afternoon of last week and the following officers were elected:

President, Sterline Wright, Secretary and Reporter, Era Shiflett.

Our club now consists of twenty members of might-be-singers if trained. Miss Howard, our instructor, is now offering some valuable training. Her aim is to equip our company with enough ammunition to make such a heavy barrage that our enemies (at the athletic association this coming spring) will have no chance at the booty.

She usually lives up to her aim, too, so watch the Glee Club in the future.

The Lyceum Course

in various camps throughout the country. The lads in khaki have given him the title of "The Talkative Trickster." Mr. Laurant's aim is to present the most artistic magic entertainment ever offered to the people of Wewoka. He will be assisted by a capable stage manager and a talented pianist, who will also take an active part in the various magic scenes.

The Southern Musicians, the third number, consists of Betty Potter, soprano, cellist and child impersonator, Lillian Sellars, pianist, soprano and whistler, Albert Frank, violinist, and Ruth Taschetta, soprano and pianist.

These four accomplished young ladies are very able entertainers and present an artistic program.

We will all look forward to the coming of the fourth number, which is presented by V. S. Watkins, interpreter, who has been with Redpath Company four years and who was with us in 1917. Most of us remember Mr. Watkins as a very successful entertainer.

Probably one of the best numbers of our course will be the fifth, presented by the Yanks Quartette. Four boys who fought for Liberty and Democracy during the great war, and who can sing and entertain, comprise this unique and popular Yanks Quartette. "The Yanks are coming" watch for them.

Our sixth number is presented by May Shumway Enderly, a dramatic reader and impersonator of rare ability.

Now that you know there is to be six real educational attractions this season the next thing to do is prepare to purchase a season ticket so that you may always be sure of securing a seat as well as guaranteeing a Lyceum Course for the coming year.

In order for us to have a Lyceum Course this year it was necessary for a number of our business men to attach their signatures to the contract. Those who are behind this movement are proving that they are behind any movement that is for the advancement of education. The following signatures have been attached to the contract:—W. W. Isle, L. W. Cozart, G. E. Bean, W. M. Haulsee,

A. M. Fowler, B. D. Lack, H. J. Shands, Jesse L. Day, Claud Bunyard, J. E. Patterson, Shepard & Cohea, W. L. Thurston, L. L. Sturgeon, and C. C. Patten.

Buy a ticket and boost those who boost.

THE YOUNG MUSICIAN

Once there lived on this earth, yea, even in this town, in this wonderful city of Wewoka, a youth. This lad was one on whom you loved to gaze. Fair, with beautiful blue eyes—yes eyes that could only mean that he was to be a great man. Yes, my dears, you have guessed, in music. There was music in his soul and in his eyes, yes e'en in his voice. But a smooth path was not laid for this aspiring young one. He had one great fault—a great liking for Violets. Yes, just a beautiful Violet would have ruined his career if he had not decided to make the sacrifice, to give up the beloved Violets. And so after a sad and tender parting he settled down to his work and is now playing the cornet at the Baptist Church.

H. E. C's ENTERTAIN

On Thursday Oct. 10, The Home Economic's Club served a three course luncheon to the members of the commercial club, their wives and "sweet-hearts"—a total number of about one hundred people.

The luncheon was served at the Cummings Hotel and was a decided success.

Most of our H. E. C. girls were inexperienced in the line of serving, and this their first year in the work. However, not knowing this fact, one could not have detected it by merely watching them. They all worked together splendidly and the luncheon was served in an unique manner.

The girls were divided into two classes—dining room girls and kitchen maids—but neither class deserves more praise than the other. Both went about their work and did it up "brown" so to speak.

The proceeds from the luncheon will be used to increase the Domestic Science equipment.

This is the first entertainment given by the H. E. C., but will not be the last. We are planning to entertain the foot ball boys soon, "and that ain't all."

Our club met recently and the following officers were elected: Jane Donnelly, President; Virgee Bishop, Vice President; Mayme Stumpp, Secretary-Treasurer; Era Shiflett, Reporter; Entertaining Committee: Smith Robinson and Bessie Michael; Program Committee: Grace Thomason and Golda Shepard.

We have ordered our pins and will soon be recognized as the H. E. C's. Watch us.—"Service, Cream and Everything" is our motto. (Serve ice cream n'everything)

WHO'S WHO IN "BOOSTERLAND"

Two years ago the practice was inaugurated of making one big annual subscription for the benefit of athletics instead of worrying the business men with many requests at the beginning of various seasons.

This has proven a decided success these three years—the business men having donated $125.00 the first year, $225.00 the second year and $212.00 this year.

The following is a list of those who subscribed to our cause this year whom we thank heartily.

Security State Bank and Farmers National Bank $10.00 each. Wewoka Trading Co., $9.00; Youngblood-Key Hdwe., and Thurston-Seran Hdwe., $6.00 each; H. J. EDITORIAL

Friday night October 24, is the first number of the Lyceum course. Let it be the duty of every student to be there if possible. All these members will be of educational value to each student. You will regret it if you do not attend.

Think of it! Just one dollar for six numbers. Grasp this opportunity while you can. The business men have made it possible to get this course here for the benefit of us and others. They have shown us they are for us. Why not return the favor by everyone purchasing a season ticket, thereby patronizing them.

Make this your slogan: I can, we can, we will, purchase season tickets.

CALENDAR

Monday, Oct 6—Mr. Mahaffey gives us a splendid talk on Habit this morning. We sang many "peppy" songs and living a quiet, peaceful day.

Monday Oct. 12—Mr. Isle gives us an interesting talk in chapel.

Tuesday Oct. 14—Cold weather, Bur—er! Everyone has the "Winter Blues."

Wednesday Oct. 15—Ruth's new aeroplane arrives at her home to-day—also most of Wewoka. Several sweet potatoes running loose over the study hall.

Thursday Oct. 16—All are freeze, froze, frizen. Quizes, exams, tests, n'everything.

Friday Oct. 17—Boys Okemah bound.

AGRICULTURE NOTES

The things that have been accomplished in agri. in the past few weeks are new inventions made by grafting.

Grafting a pecan and mango, producing nut sundae; sugar cane and apple producing apple sauce; pecan and grape producing grape nuts; and apple with pie plant producing apple pie.

We are also equipped with carrying apparatus, we have a Campbell and a Ford in class.

John Campbell gave a discussion the other day on the calcium in an egg. ? ! ?

Jane was talking about the carbon in salt—we wonder where she got it?

We surely had a fine class the day it rained so hard?

Miss Geer told us to choose a subject we liked and give a report on it. Jane chose Bed Bugs and Chicken Lice.

THE BOX SUPPER

One of the most enjoyable features of the season was the box supper given at the Armory on October 11.

An artistic musical program was rendered by different members of W. H. S. and the Harmony Choral Club. One of the best features of the program was the number rendered by the Wewoka Commercial Club Quartette, the members of which proved themselves to be well qualified "black faced" comedians by staging a suitable comedy.

A cake was offered to the most popular young lady above sixteen and a pie to the most popular young lady under that age. A pie was also given to the "Oneriest" man.

Miss Ruth Brown was awarded the cake while Miss Maxine Cutlip and Mr. Riggins laid claim to the pies. These two young ladies are very popular indeed, but we refrain from stating just how "Onery" Mr. Riggins really is, ! ! ! ! ? ? ?

The proceeds of the box supper, amounting to $127.62, will be used to increase the school library equipment. We take this opportunity in thanking all those who helped in any way.

JOKES

B. B. was sweeping off the steps of his home when a visitor called.

"Is your mother in?" asked the caller.

"Do you think I'd be sweepin' the steps if she wuzn't?"

Heard in Manual Training—

Mr. Riggins—(Wanting to borrow a measure) "Have you a two-foot rule in this room?"

Mr. Longwith—"Yes; its to wipe all the mud off 'em before you come into the building."

Miss Finney gave the Domestic Science girls a hard exam. The next day she exclaimed: "You students were exposed to this test, but it didn't take!"

JOKES

Excited freshmen telling of an accident—

"She lost one arm and broke her ankle, and she's having difficulty in using crutches, because that was the arm the foot was on, and she'll have to learn to walk with the other hand."

The Library is now open to the students. It is well equipped with new cards and other supplies, magazines and a few more books have been ordered and will be ready for use in a few days.

Miss Geer instructing her pupils in the use of the hyphen, asked them to give her an example. Bird cage was given.

"Now why do you put the hyphen in bird-cage?"

"Its for the bird to sit on!" answered Charles.

Miss Geer—"Mr Isle is the most absent minded man I ever saw."

Miss Cook—"What's he been doing now?"

Miss Geer—"This morning he thought he had left his watch at home, and proceeded to take it out of his pocket to see if he had time to go home and get it."

Buster Kiker was bothering Martha Patten in class the other day, Miss Howard noticing the conflict said: "Buster will you stop annoying Martha!"

Buster—"I'm not anawin' on her."

"Are both those horses yours?" asked Grace.

"Sure!" replied Mr. Isle, "Why?"

"Oh nothing", answered Grace, "Only Miss Cook said you were a 'one horse' superintendent."

ATHLETICS

On Friday October 10th, quite an aggregation of Tigers and Tiger supporters boarded the east bound and went to Wetumka.

Arriving there we were escorted to the hotel and there were provided for until time to "go".

The game was called at four o'clock and in the midst of rain, mud and water, n'everything, the teams fought it out. The ball was carried back and forth time and again within easy reach of either goal and the game was a toss up until the first touch-down was scored by the Tigers. After this touch-down the game went on with more fighting and pep than ever. The Wetumka bunch fighting to the last. We must say that this was the cleanest playing, hardest fighting, bunch we have ever come in contact with.

When the final whistle blew the score stood Wewoka High School 20; Wetumka High School 0.

The first touch-down was scored in the last of the second quarter by Campbell. Seran kicked a goal.

In the fourth, Wetumka fighting harder all the time, Sanders went across for a touch-down after a series of line plunges. Seran again kicked a goal.

A few minutes later Seran scored a touch-down. This ended a clean fought game on both sides. There were no serious injuries on either team.

This is our second game, the first being with Holdenville. Scores as follows:

Wewoka 82; Holdenville 6.

Wewoka 20; Wetumka 0.

The Tigers were loyally treated by the Wetumka team and town folks. We know how to appreciate this fine treatment and we will endeavor to return the compliment when Wetumka returns the game.

The Wetumka girls also showed very favorable hospitality towards the Wewoka girls. The Wewoka girls say they have the nicest bunch they have ever been with.

JOKES

Hugh—"We have an old family knocker on our door."

Earl S.—"We have one on the inside."

Mainard—"What was Joe pinched for?"

B. B.—"His father told him he could use the car an hour."

Mainard—"Well?"

B. B.—"He tried to ride an hour in fifteen minutes."

It aint the balls, nor the football togs,
Nor the games that we can't play,
But our close co-operation,
That helps us win this way.
It aint the individual,
Nor the ball team as a whole,
But the everlasting team work,
Of every blooming soul.

OKEMAH 0; WEWOKA 2.

The Tiger filled a date in Okemah Friday October 17th.

The game was called at 4 o'clock. From the beginning this game was slow on both sides, several passes being completed by the Okemah team and a few by the Tiger team. Nearly all line plunges netted gains for both teams. In the third quarter the Wewoka team scored two points by a safety, this being the only score.

On the Okemah team the right half and Eler at right end played a good game. Also left tackle.

On our team Sanders and Seran played as star players, also Miller at tackle.

The Tigers will meet this team on home court Nov 21. We hope to have a good game and be able to show the Okemahans a good time.

We regret that we were not able to remain for the entertainment given in our honor, but the bad roads necessitated our early return.

The Tigers will meet Seminole here the 24th. We expect to have a hard fought game, come and root.

A number of business men of Wewoka went to Okemah to root for our team. We appreciate this and hope to be able to show them a faster game the 21st of November, the return date.

STOP! LOOK! LISTEN!!

The followers of the Seminole Big Chief will meet the Tiger Clan on the local gridiron Friday, October 24. This is expected to be one of the "Big" games of the season. Of course you will want to see Seminole "TRY" to tie a knot in the Tiger's tail, so buy a ticket now. Everyone will be there. Follow the crowd.

Vol. IV

Wewoka, Oklahoma, Nov. 5, 1919

No. 4

W. H. S. 46; SEMINOLE 6.

The story of the Seminole game might well be summed up in the lines of that well known ballad. "In sooth, it was a famous victory!" As most of the folks in these parts know, these two schools have been rivals for no short length of time and every contest between them is one of the big events of the season. Our friends from up the Rock Island have usually had the better of the argument so far as the grid-iron sport is concerned, which fact lent added interest to this particular game. Reports have been drifting to us all season concerning the splendid team the Seminole coach had built up and everyone in Wewoka of course knew of the great record that the Tigers had made this year. It had also been rumored that the business men of Seminole had offered considerable inducement to their team to bring home the victory. All these facts contributed toward making last Friday a much anticipated day for the Tiger team and Tiger fans.

The usual big crowd was out for the contest, enlarged by the addition of quite a delegation of Seminole fans. Both teams came on to the field, full of snap and confidence which their records for the season justified. It was evident that a great contest was brewing.

Wewoka won the toss, and chose to defend the south goal. Seminole kicked. The ball was rushed up the field by the Tigers, only to be lost on downs, and then the game was on in earnest. Each team was fighting hard for an advantage, but were about equally matched in the opening period. The ball frequently changed hands on fourth down, and both teams had to resort frequently to the punting route in order to get the ball out of their territory. Gradually, however, the superior training and the better condition of the Tigers began to tell, and they succeeded in rushing the ball down the field and over the line for a touchdown after twelve minutes of hard fighting. Long, Wewoka's fast half, altho handicapped with a severe "charley horse," was the man to whom goes the honor of making the first touchdown of the game. Seran kicked goal. The first quarter ended with the score standing 7-0.

As the game progressed the local team gathered momentum from its own success, while their opponents seemed to gradually lose their dash and confidence. Brilliant end runs by Long and Campbell, fierce line plunging by Seran, sensational open field running by Christian, and the strong offensive and defensive work of the Tiger line carried the ball down the field time and again for a touchdown. The Seminole team put up a strong defense and fought hard clear thru to the finish, but they were no match for their more skillful opponents. Their work on offense was much superior to their defensive playing their manipulation of the forward pass being especially dangerous. It was a long pass to Oakley in the second quarter that placed the ball so close to the line that Eppler was able to carry it over for their only score of the game. Altogether they completed eight passes for a total gain of one hundred yards, Oliver getting away with four of these, Oakley with two and Moore with two.

Wewoka was strong with the passing game, but proved able to back up her work in this line with good broken field running, and fierce line plunging. In fact it was her ability to mix these three styles of play in such bewildering combination that was largely responsible for the big score which was piled up. The Tigers completed six passes for a total gain of one hundred thirty two yards. Christian was on the receiving end of four of these, Barham took one and Rogers one. Seminole was best with the short pass, while the locals were more successful with the longer heaves.

The brilliant plays of the game were Christian's ninety five yard sprint for a touchdown after he recovered a Seminole fumble on our own five yard line, this being one of the most sensational plays of the season; Seminole's two long passes to Oakley and to Carter; long end runs by Campbell and Christian, and the great work of Miller in opening holes thru the line, and in breaking up opposing plays. Earl Seran's defensive work was also very noticeable thru out the contest.

Eppler, Oakley, Moore, and Oliver did the best work for Seminole.

Every man on the Wewoka team deserves some form of special mention. Rogers and Barham at end were strong on defensive work and each got away with a long pass down the field. Frederick and Miller at tackles were two of the shining lights of the game. They were in front of every plunge thru the line, and were

"Sow a thought, you reap an act,
Sow an act, you reap a habit."

True isn't it? Alright lets do it.
First think of what you should do and do it. After you do this several times you will get the habit of going at the thing you should without any hesitancy. It is not worth while to sit down and wish you could do as well as some others. Wishing never advances us. The thing to do is to try; we never know what we can do until we try. We should not let the things go by that we can do and by which we can profit.

Editors! when you have some work to do for the Little Tiger; you know it is your duty; your own responsibility, so why wait? Don't wait and say "O well, if I don't some one else will, so why should I bother about it?" This isn't the right spirit. Do your own work. It would be a good plan to make a list (if you can't remember them) each day of the things you should do. Take the most important one first and go down the line performing each with earnest zeal. You will probably not have any more than you can do if you do them at the right time and in the right way.

Make yourself valuable; indispen-sible; be an initiator—do the right thing without being told. Next, there are those who never do a thing until they are told twice. These students will never accomplish much in life.
Next, there are those who never do any thing until some one stands over them and compels them to do it. They are always making excuses: "Didn't have time; had something else to do; couldn't do it, and I can't". This kind never receives any sympathy and gets the contempt they deserve.
The last is the "don't" kind. The students that wont do anything even when someone shows them how and stays to see that they do it. The life of these student will be a complete failure unless they eliminate the "nt" and become the "do" kind.

Students, to which class do you belong?

The first number of the Lyceum course, by Mr. Laurant and Company was a great success. His many magic tricks were enthusiastically enjoyed by everybody. They are still wondering how he performed his tricks. The cost was $370.00 to get this course and we have approximately $450.00 in the treasury.

Everyone says the first number was worth the price of the entire course.

The high school students were awarded quite a treat Monday at Chapel when Mr. Mahaffey of the commercial club gave us an address
He said he was appearing before us mainly for the purpose of inaugurating the Red Cross drive in the high school.

In answer to his call for volunteer workers about seventy five enthusiastic students responded. They pledged them selves to enroll twenty members each.

Mr. Mahaffey also gave an oral boquet to our foot ball boys for their style of clean playing, but what filled us with the most confidence was his declaration that the men of Wewoka would always stand back of us as long as our school stood for those standards of athletics.

We certainly feel ready to "tackle" any task with that kind of spirit behind us. Come again, Mr. Mahaffey with anything you want us to do and we will show you the same enthusiastic response.

A hot debate was carried on in the agri. class last Tuesday. The question was: "Resolved that Rocks grow" The affirmative was defend-less by John Campbell, Jane Donnelly and Cecil Keesee. The negative was defended by Loey Rogers, Ernest Sebastian, Opal Casey and Ruby Bass. The judges were Ford Belford, Violet Dyer, Erbert Shiflett and Miss Geer. Bear in mind! Rocks do not grow.

"GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN"

Another one of our alumni was taken on October 27, 1919, when Mr. J. Cecil Maxwell of Konawa left with his bride, Miss Francis Tucker.

The young couple was married at the home of the bride's parents on the evening of Oct. 27 in the presence of a few intimate friends.

After the ceremony an impromptu program was arranged including joke and story telling. A mock wedding, games and toasts, which was enjoyed immensely by all.

Angel food cake and fruit punch was served at a late hour and the guests departed, wishing the young couple much joy and success in life.

Mr. Maxwell is a minister and will be located at Wheatland, Okla., the coming year. His former home is Konawa.

Miss Tucker is well known by the people of Wewoka and especially by the High School, most of us having been in school with her several years.

She is a graduate of '19 and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Tucker of this city.

The Tiger Clan grows "success" for these young people.

ROAMING

I roamed thru the winding alleys,
And jeweled doors of Spain.
I read in the books of Caesar,
Of Monarchs wise and sane,

But in no town,

Was ever found,

Another girl like Jane.

I sat in the homes of Norway,
I plucked the Alaskan holly,
I saw in war torn France,
The result of the Kaiser's folly,

But on the lea,

I'll never see,

As true a sport as Charley.

I strolled thru sunny Italy,
And gazed at the wonders all,
I scaled the peaks of Switzerland,

And listened to nature's call.

But in my round,

I've never found,

Another musician like Paul.

I roamed back to Old America,

Thru the gardens of Kentucky,

I saw many gay colored birds,

Picking fruit from under the leaves
so lacy,

But the taste of fruit,

Was not so sweet

As my little Opal Casey.

Attention must again be called to the subscription list of the Little Tiger. Let us close this up with a hundred per cent subscription list from each class. The president of each class should arouse interest in his class and get each member to subscribe if possible.

The classes now stand:

Seniors 100 per cent.

Juniors 90 per cent.

Sophs 45 per cent.

Fresh 25 per cent.

Sophs and Freshmen get a little "thuse" and get busy.

Rah, Rah, Rah for Bill (It ain't his fault, blame Miss Cook.) Of course we beat Seminole. An enthusiastic bunch of students and citizens accompanied the team to our city, and were well pleased as all are who see the splendid fairness which our boys demonstrate in their games.

OF INTEREST TO YOU

The rules which will govern the excusing of students from final examinations have been announced. They are so broad in application and so fair in spirit that no student in We-woka High School who has to take the finals will have no one to blame but himself. Final examinations will be given in each subject each semester. Get busy if you expect to escape them. There are three rules or cases under which you may be exempted. They are as follows:

I. All students who have been neither absent nor tardy, who have made a passing grade in each of the three periods for which reports are issued during a semester, and who have made an average of ninety in conduct for the semester will be exempted.

II. All students who have not more than three excused absences, not more than two excused tardy marks against them, who have made a grade of "B" or more for each period, and an average of ninety in conduct for the semester, will be exempted.

III. All students who have not more than four excused absences, not more than four excused tardy marks, who have made a grade of "A" in each period, and an average of ninety in conduct, will be exempted.

A bunch of young folks enjoyed a hallowe'en jamboree given by Misses Golda Shepard and Mary Thomason at the home of Golda. The house was beautifully decorated with witches, pumpkins and black cats. Ghosts flitting about made things very spooky. After many games and contests a dainty, one course luncheon was served consisting of fruit salad, sandwiches, olives and coffee. At a late hour the guests departed after having a very enjoyable evening.

"You will get run in", said the pedestrian to the bicyclist, "if you ride without a light."

"You'll get run into," responded the rider as he knocked the other down.

"You'll get run in too" said the policeman, as he stepped forward and seized the cyclist.

Just then another scorching came along without a light, so the policeman was run into too, and had to run in two.

Miss Geer—"Wright which eats the most—animals or birds?"

Wright—"Birds, because they take a peck at a time."

Sometimes figures lose their abstractness and become very interesting. This is true especially when they have a message to convey. The following data, compiled from a study of the report cards issued to the students at the end of the first period of this school year, tell more clearly and forcefully than words, of the high quality of work that is being done in Wewoka High School.

The fifty-five cards that had been returned at the time this report was worked out showed that a total of two hundred and nine grades had been recorded. Out of these 209 there were 108 A's, 71 B's, 25 C's and 5 F's. Of the 108 A's the Seniors made 27, the Juniors 23, the Sophomores 46, and the Freshmen 12.

In conduct grades, there were 37 A's, 14 B's and 4 C's.

The average grade in scholarship, made by the different classes was as follows: Seniors 92.6, Juniors 90.2, Sophomores 89.5, Freshmen 82.7. In conduct grades the average was: Seniors 89.3, Juniors 86.1, Sophomores 90.4, Freshmen 92.7.

There were twelve students who made straight "A's" in scholarship; eight who made straight "A's" in scholarship, conduct and effort, whose names are as follows:

Ruby Bass.
Rudolph Hill.
Ernest Sebastian.
Cecil Keesee.
Helen Douglas.
Bessie Michael,
Mainard Kennerly.
Jennie Robinson.

The honor of having made the highest average in the entire school goes to Jennie Robinson, of the Sophomore class. She made the extraordinary record of three A pluses and one A, or an average grade of 97.

The first month's report on attendance shows that there are now enrolled in the entire school a total of 331 pupils. Of these 72 are in high school, the largest enrollment ever recorded in the entire school, or in the high school for the first month. A very fine record has also been made in attendance, the percentage for the entire school being 94.7 per cent, that of the high school 95 per cent. Our record of promptness in the grades is very poor, there having been a total of 78 tardies during the month. In the high school the record is not so bad, only 16 late arrivals having been registered.

An interesting comparison of our records for the past three years can be made.

Entire school—

	1917-18	1918-19	1919-20
Enrollment	298	276	331
Pr. ct. attendance	95	94.3	94.7
Cases tardiness	61	92	94
High school—
Enrollment	43	41	72
Attendance	93	94	95
Cases tardiness	24	27	16

It is also interesting to note that out of the 72 students enrolled in high school there are 33 boys, or approximately 47 per cent of the total enrollment.

We are proud of our record for this first month in every respect, with the exception of the number of cases of tardiness. Every student in school should take this one problem to heart and see that a big improvement is made during the coming month.

Editor of the Little Tiger,

Wewoka, Oklahoma,

Dear Editor:

I have just finished reading the last issue of "The Little Tiger" and enjoyed it immensely. In my estimation W. H. S. has one of the best high school papers in the state. I am enclosing the necessary amount for a year's subscription so don't forget me when the next issue appears.

As I read the lines of the pages it seemed as if I were living my high school days over again, and it filled me with a desire to come back and take part in the school activities. Especially would I like to be back to see the "Tiger Eleven" in action. They are making a fine record for W. H. S. and I only hope that they continue with as much success in every form of athletics. The bunch seem to have the "pep" and enthusiasm and it is not likely that they will fall short of the expectations of the students.

I am still interested in W. H. S. and will always be so. Wewoka seems more like home to me than any other place and although I have not lived there for quite awhile, I still call it my home.

As editor of the paper I wish you and your staff the best of success in all of your undertakings, and may the spirit with which your first issues show, last during the entire year.

Sincerely yours,

Kenneth H. Baker,

222 N. Washington.

Duncan, Okla.,

Editor Little Tiger,

Wewoka, Oklahoma.

Dear Miss Editor:—

Two editions of the Little Tiger have come to us, each one full of the pep, the enthusiasm, and ideals, that have endeared Wewoka High to us.

We read both papers, from cover to cover, from the head lines about the football game to the latest joke on Miss Howard.

I think the news of the football game almost disgraced us. The minute we read that score, we dropped our almost established dignity, and performed a jig, the like of which even John Long could not execute.

Last Friday Duncan High played and won their first game. We were there yelling as usual.

We are enclosing the money for our subscription to "The Little Tiger" and want you to know that we are behind you in whatever you undertake this year.

We are sending a "Howdy" to the Tigers in general—and we wish we were there to help "pull off" a good, old time celebration, when Wewoka wins its next game.

In all the pleasures and excitement of what we hope and believe will be a most successful school year, don't quite forget two old-timers—

A MODERN HERO

What boy or girl is there who has not been thrilled with the story of that Spartan youth who, while on his way to school one morning found a young fox and placed it under his shirt front to keep the teacher from discovering it? The story tells us that the boy, true to the Spartan idea of stoicism, let the fox gnaw its way clear thru his chest into his vitals and finally fell dead, without ever giving forth any expression of pain.

This little story will gradually pale into insignificance, however, as folks begin to read of the heroism recently displayed by one of our popular Tiger students. The new story will tell how our modern Spartan, whose name happens to be Chamblee, displayed a similar amount of self-control under even more trying circumstances. While George was following the intricacies of a Geometry recitation, a fierce and blood-thirsty scorpion crawled stealthily and unnoticed up his sleeve and began foraging upon George's plump, juicy muscle. Now those who know tell us that the bite of a fox is as nothing in comparison to the sting of a healthy scorpion, yet our young stoic sat bravely and calmly thru the recitation without uttering one murmur that might disturb the explanation that was going on.

All hail to the new hero! Seminole ought not to fee so badly over losing a game to a school where even the younger generation displays such amazing and splendid qualities.

continually breaking thru the opposing defense and "messing up" their plays before they got started. Shepard and Walker as guards played a great game thruout the contest, the stonewall defense for which the Tigers are becoming famous being due in no small degree to their work. Nicholson is rapidly developing into one of the most reliable centers in the state. His passes are always to the spot, and his brilliant defensive work stopped many a line plunge. Earl Seran at full played his usual steady game. His punting, passing and plunging were always in evidence; and he was the chief bulwark of the team on the defense. Campbell played his usual dashing, smashing game at half. Whether it was in rushing his way thru the line, or in dashing for quick gains around the ends, he was "there with the goods." Long was equally valuable at half. He was the best in fast dashes around the ends for long gains. Christian at quarter was a whole team by himself. He handled his team with the skill of a master in the art of strategy, played a whirlwind defensive game, carried the ball on fake plays for some of the longest gains of the game, and then found time to get down the field and pull down four brilliant forward passes. Kennerly took Long's place at half and played a strong, steady game. His work in intercepting the forward passes of the enemy, and in short dashes around ends were especially good. Joe Seran also got into the game and played his usual good defensive game in the line. Bill Patten thrilled the crowd again and again in the closing minutes of play by his dashes thru end for good gains.

Touchdowns were scored as follows: Seran 2, Campbell 2, Long 1, Christian 1, Patten 1. Goals after touchdown Seran 4.

Mr. Barfoot of Holdenville, and Mr. Hand of Shawnee officiated in the game and rendered entire satisfaction to both teams. They kept the game going fast and clean at all times.

We are now looking forward to the big tussle with Roff which comes off November 7th. This will more than likely be the hardest fought game of the season. It will be a very important factor in determining the championship of this district. Every student in school and every loyal booster in Wewoka should make special preparations to attend this game. It may be the last game on the local grid-iron this season. Don't miss it.

The Tigers had to content themselves this last Friday with a little scrimmage between two picked teams. Ada High School called off their date with us, giving as their reason that their boys were so small that they did not feel that they could cope with our bunch. Perhaps it is well enough. We do not care to bother with "Small Fries" this late in the season.

Mr. Nash brought forth a big round

The student body will not soon forget this occasion. It showed them that they are "on the right track" and going in the right direction. It

Mr. Nash also made a big hit personally with the student body. His straightforwardness, his spirit of friendly helpfulness won the heart of every student. He will always be a welcome visitor to Wewoka High School.

THE FIVE SIDED INDIVIDUAL

Probably the greatest question that faces every student is "What am I going to school for?" It is a very lamentable fact that the majority of pupils never stop to ask themselves this question.
They go to school because they like to or because they are made to go. Some may say that by going to school their money making ability is increased. However, those same students may be missing things in school that are of vital importance to the making of money. The thing every student should do is to set up a goal and thus have something to be striving towards. The kind of goal he selects must be a permanent one, not one that is continually shifting.

When a student selects a goal, let him make the straight path towards it.
Concentration of every ounce of energy on reaching a fixed goal will hardly ever fail of success.

The difference between a great man and a man who is unknown is caused by the kinds of aims they set up. If a man expects to become great he must live a great life. He must rise above the petty aims and desires of the average person. If he aims high, he will far more likely succeed than if he aims low.

In the first place a man must realize that he is not living for self. He must be broad-minded enough to see that his real mission in life is to do the most he can for the world. If he is to be honored by his fellowmen he must do everything he can for the relieving of their sorrows, the uplifting of their lives and the future of their children.

When we commence to think of

EDITORIAL

As we have started two peppy literary societies in W. H. S. let us stop and think what the value of a literary society is to us. First, we know that it develops our literary and musical powers, creates enthusiasm and offers improvement for better speech. It also helps us to become better acquainted and teaches us to work together.

Don't let the educational opportunity of a literary society go to just a few students—be one of the leaders yourself—"One of the greatest hindrances of the world today is the lack of worthy leaders." Another good point of a literary society is the amount of enthusiasm which is generated by good leadership. Some students belong to a literary society and never think of the good they will get out of it if they will only go into it the right way. Some students when repeatedly placed on the program respond each time just the same as they did the first time, no improvement being shown whatsoever. They often get as short a report as they can thereby getting through with it as quick as possible. They will never be valued if they go into it with this spirit. We should try each time to appear better than before. Many of us are ready to go as soon as we can pay our part on the program. We care nothing about the rest of the program, the parliamentary drill, etc., just anything to get away. We should listen to all that is said and when a good point is given which is worth remembering we should take it down or let it "soak in so that it will stay with us". We should listen to all that is said for we will profit by it.

Another thing worth mentioning is the program. We should always have a great, enthusiastic and rousing program that will inspire everybody so they will go away declaring that it is a great thing to belong to a literary society. The way to have this kind of a program is to do what you are asked to do in your best way. Think of this as you go about your work and keep this line in mind: "I will do all I can to make my literary society progress."

ALPHA CHI'S ENTERTAIN

On Hallowe'en eve the Alpha Chi girls entertained the football boys and High School Faculty in a most unique way at the home of Miss Ruth Brown.

The house was prettily decorated in Orange and Black, the Hi School colors which added to the Hollowe'en spirit.

Interesting games, auctioning of shadows, pep speeches, joke and story telling, fortune hunting, bobbing for apples, literary contests and dancing were some of the interests of the evening.

Late in the evening ghost stories were told while a very dim light flickered from the face of pumpkins.

Extra fire and gas (doughnuts and lemonade) were served.

All present report a fine time. What other report could you expect when the party was at Ruth Brown's home.

Armistice day was observed in W. H. S. by rendering a patriotic program. Rudolph Hill gave a splendid talk on the effect of the Armistice. Sterline Wright refreshed in our minds the life and worthy deeds of Roosevelt, while Era Shiflett gave a talk on thrift. Many patriotic songs were sung by the school. We were turned out at noon to spend the rest of the day in our own way. Many attended the football game.

UNIVERSITY GLEE CLUB COMING

Wewoka High School students are very fortunate this year in that they will have an opportunity of hearing the Oklahoma University Men's Glee Club. This is a privilege that does not come to many high schools in the state. The Glee Club is one of the most popular musical and entertaining organizations in the state. This will be the best attraction of this kind that ever appeared in Wewoka. Every high school student should plan to attend. The date announced is December 6th.

LAST GAME HERE NEXT FRIDAY

The last home appearance of the Wewoka High School foot ball team is scheduled to take place on Friday of this week. The strong team from Allen High School is to be our opponents on this occasion and a hard fought game is expected. If you want to see the mighty Tiger team in action once more—the team that has proved to be the best in the history of Wewoka High School—then don't fail to turn out Friday. The boys will close the season with their Thanksgiving game at Seminole next week.

Miss Howard—"You are sitting on it Mr. Isle."

Tuesday Nov. 11, the Tigers of W. H. S. for a celebration of Armistice day had a very interesting foot ball game with the Roughnecks of We-woka. The playing of the Roughnecks was very admirable considering that they had had no practice. Naturally the Tigers were victorious having a score of 26 and the Roughnecks only 18. Our score would have doubled itself had all our players been in condition to play.

Paul Shepard and Hugh Barham were unable to play at all but their places were filled nicely with Joe Seran and Vernon Rogers. About the end of the third quarter Earl Day went in and showed remarkable talent at left guard in Isaac Walker's place. This is Earl's first game this season.

This scrimmage put the Tigers in better shape to play and beat McAlester Friday, November 14. We would feel better if we had a game like this every week.

ATHLETICS

On Friday Nov. 7th, the strong Roff eleven invaded our territory and came out at the big end of a 46-7 score.

Our team was crippled very seriously by the loss of Sanders at left half, Long, left end, and Barham right end. These places filled by "new men" were held down to a certain extent and the Tiger clan was not as badly as the score shows.

The first and second quarter went against us, the Roff team pulling fake after fake for long gains around ends. The home team tried the aerial game but netted few gains except to Seran. The Roff team was exceptionally good at breaking up passes.

The third quarter started with a rush and the Tiger team netted two touchdowns, only to fumble and lose one. The third quarter was known for line plunges and touchdowns on Roff team. Our team was further crippled by loss of Shepard at right end.

The game was a clean, hard fought game on both sides and was highly appreciated by spectators.

G. Washington at left half and B. T. Washington at right tackle and Doc Berry at quarter played a star game for Roff, while Seran easily outplayed any "booter" of the opposing team. Miller at tackle, Patten at end also played a good game at half and safety.

Our touchdown was made on a pass from Seran to Patten.

Campbell made a touch down on line buck but lost the ball.

The Roff team played a good game and we are satisfied that we would receive just treatment at their hands when visiting their town.

This is the first game between the two towns and we hope to have always a clean, hard game fought between the two teams n years to come. We also hope to change the score should we meet again.

SENIOR STUNT

The first entertainment of the season was the Senior weenie roast on November 10.

Owing to the fact that come of the class "could not" go—for various reasons—a few guests, outside the class were invited. Sandwiches were furnished by the girls, while the boys "fetched" along an abundant* supply of weenies, marshmallows, and apples.

Jokes were cracked incessantly, John Williams being chief "cracker". The enthusiasm of the bunch and the moonlight added to the pleasure of the evening.

All present report a glorious time and are "rearing to go" again.

Those present were: Hugh Barham, Rudolph Hill, John Williams, Earl Seran, Era Shiflett, and Dorothy Fraser of the Senior Class, and Bess Michael, Ruth Brown and Wright Christian invited guests.

Miss Marie Plater and Miss Helen Hayes chaperoned.

CAMPFIRE HIKE

The Campfire girls went on their first hike of the season on Nov. 5.

On this occasion captains, lieutenants and privates ate from the same table—a very rare happening.

A suitable two-course camp-fire luncheon was served from a huge stone table, at the bluff, which was beautifully decorated with flowers—moss being the leading flower. The color scheme was well carried out and blended harmoniously.

The first course consisted of weenies, bread, pickles and apples, while the second course was of dry bread and scorched toast with roasted hickory nuts.

Joke telling was the principle event of the evening—Jessie Fraser winning the prize for being the best narrator.

Patrol No. II treated the bunch with apples which were very much appreciated.

Each patrol will be expected to do its share on future hikes.

DOM. SCIENCE SERVES SOLDIERS

As a troop train, bearing soldiers returning from the mines at McAlester pulled into Wewoka on Nov. 13—two hundred and seventy soldier boys were greeted by the W. H. S. Home Economics Club which served them with sandwiches, pie, and hot coffee.

The lunch was served canteen style and was handled very well considering the limited experience the girls had in this line.

In all we served 540 sandwiches, 60 pies and 34 gallons of coffee.

The girls knew nothing about this until 9:00 o'clock and the train arrived at 4:00, which meant lots of work and a short time, but the H. E. C's can do most anything when they try so all went off well.

The total proceeds collected was $114.00, out of which we will clear about $50.00.

The Five Sided Individual

what our fore fathers have suffered and accomplished for us, our souls are overwhelmed with a feeling of love and veneration. We feel deeply our debt of gratitude to them. It is a debt we are honor-bound to pay. The great question confronting us is, "How can we best pay it?"

Undoubtedly the best way to do this is to so develop and train our faculties that we can do the most good for the world and future generations.

There are five sides to the life of every person that must be developed fully to make the perfect man or woman.

First:—He or she should be well developed physically. A weak, sickly person cannot put forth his best efforts. He is a burden to himself as well as others. He does not feel like doing things as they should be done and is consequently a detriment to the progress of mankind. To avoid becoming such a character, a person should observe a few simple rules of health. He should, first of all be scrupulously clean. He should get lots of fresh air and plenty of healthful exercise. Good habits of eating and sleeping are also essential to the development of a strong physical body. Habits, once formed, are very hard to break. So it is important that a person begin to form habits of the right kind of living early in life. A person who has formed these habits is practically sure of good health which gives lots of energy and makes him feel like accomplishing great things.

It is a very good idea to get interested in athletics, because a person will be compelled to form good habits if he stays on any athletic team.

The second side of a person's life is his mental side. A person's mental ability is worth more to him than mere physical ability. He should cultivate a strong mind, A mind that is able to see right thru anything. So much quackery would not be prevalent in the world today if people used their heads more. A person should not sit with open mouth and gulp down what everybody says for pure truth. He should have a mind of his own and be able to judge right from wrong. The student who always depends upon some body else for his information and does not use his own head will certainly meet sad disappointment when he steps out in the wide awake business world of today. I don't mean that a person has to memorize and know everything so that he can tell you everything you want to know right now but he should be able to know where any knowledge that you desire can be obtained. In other words a person should have all knowledge of any importance at his finger tips. It is a good thing to ask questions. If a person doesn't understand a thing he should enquire about it and keep inquiring till he understands it thoroughly. However, he should form his own conclusions and not change them until they have been proven wrong.

This essay won first prize for being the best reproduction of an address recently made in chapel by Mr. Isle. Other winning papers were turned in by Era Shiflett, Bill Nicholson, Stella Hall, Mainard Kennerly, Idella Hall, Harold Steph, Jennie Bell Willmott, Bill Tucker.

Miss Cook was trying to show Rudolph how to read with expression. "Where are you going" read Rudolph laboriously and with no accent whatever. "Try that again" said the teacher, "read as if you were talking. Notice that mark at the end."

Rudolph studied the interrogation mark a moment, and an idea seemed to dawn upon him, then he read out triumphantly: "Where are you going you little button hook?"

EDMOND 14—W. H. S. 30

Thursday night, Jan. 29th, the Edmond quintet visited Wewoka in full strength. They had won quite a reputation for fast clean playing and some good teams had been defeated by them. So every one anticipated a good game and later events proved as much as was expected.

The game was called at 7:30 o'clock before a good sized crowd of spectators. The Wewoka band was also conspicuous by its rendition of some of the old Tiger war songs and a good amount of enthusiasm was wrought up by the time the whistle blew for the game to start.

Edmond played a hard fast game in the first half and our boys, although fighting hard could not overcome the lead that their opponents got over them at the beginning. So the first half ended with Edmond 10 to 7 in the lead.

During the last half our team rallied itself and came back so full of "pep" and strength, that, from the very start, things took on a decidedly different aspect. Playing as they had hardly ever played before, the Tigers piled the score up higher and higher, in spite of the determined efforts of the Edmond players, and when the final whistle blew the score was 30 to 14 with Wewoka at the big end of it.

Mainard Kennerly and Clarence Kiker proved themselves very good substitutes for our big center, Seran, who was ill and could not play in this game. Mainard started at center but after a while Kiker was substituted for him. It may be truly said that every member of the team played a game that was remarkable for its

GIRLS AT HOME THIS WEEK.

The Tiger girls, after making an all victorious three-game trip last week, will be at home for two important games on Friday and Saturday nights. The Sulphur girls will be here Friday and the Tecumseh girls Saturday night. These are two of the strongest girls' teams in this section of the state Sulphur has played and defeated some of the leading teams in the southern part of the state, while the Tecumseh girls have played the only really close game against the local team this season. The game at Tecumseh last Thursday was a battle royal and all indications are that Saturday night's game will be another one. Sulphur had one of the two teams that were able to mar the record of our team last year. Tiger fans are strong for winning this game.

W. H. S. WILL DEBATE SEMINOLE.

Wewoka High will try out her ability in the forensic line this year, having entered the State Debating League. The first debate is to be with Seminole High School and will take place on the evening of February 10th. The winner of this debate will next go against Shawnee High School, the state champions of last year. Rudolph Hill, John Campbell and Jane Donnelly compose the team that will represent the Tigers at Seminole.

team work and swiftness and no one player starred in particular.

The Edmond boys also played a very swift but clean game and made our boys work hard for their final victory.

On Thursday, Jan. 29, twelve Wewoka banner defenders left on the 2:35 for an extended trip to Tecumseh, Wanette and Pauls Valley to show the girls of these three teams how to play basket ball, and from all reports they brought home the sought for bacon.

They defeated Tecumseh 20-22, Thursday night. Pauls Valley 33-27, Friday night and Wanette 53-0, Saturday night.

They played the latter on the Tecumseh court, on account of the fact that Wanette had recently lost their court.

The line ups of the three games are as follows:

OUR EXCHANGES

The editors of the Little Tiger are deeply grateful for the many valuable suggestions they receive through the exchanges that reach us each week. Some of these come from far away Wyoming; others from Kansas, Nebraska, Colorado, Ohio, Illinois, Florida and Arkansas, to which may be added quite a number from our own great State.

These little journals carry a message of educational work not obtainable from any other source. Without exception, every printed book or paper published is a champion of higher education and a stalwart friend of our various institutions of learning, whether public or private, but none of these quite so efficiently detail the great work being accomplished as do the little journals that make their appearance weekly, semi-monthly or monthly as the case may be.

Many of these papers are ably edited, and in addition to their news value, have many articles that from a literary standpoint compare favorably with writers of many years experience at the editorial desk. And who knows but that some of the great newspaper men and women of tomorrow are now being developed through the medium of the school journal? We say it is not only possible, but quite probable, that from among these editors, the boys and girls of today, will emerge some able writers.

We think one of the best indications that a town or community has a live school is the fact that it has a good school paper supported by the business men of its locality. It is a standing advertisement of the push and progressive spirit, both of the school and the school's patrons. It is a permanent record of every event or incident worthy of mention. It wields a powerful influence over our pupils, and it encourages them to greater efforts, it brings about a friendly competition that is especially beneficial to them in the end.

Truly, our exchanges are a valuable asset, without which we should often grope in the dark and give up in despair for want of an idea.

BOYS MAKE BIG TRIP THIS WEEK

The Wewoka High School boys basket ball team will make an extended invasion of the enemy's territory this week. Beginning Tuesday night they meet successively Tulsa, Sapulpa, Okmulgee will be encountered, and the Schools. This trip will be the real test of the Tiger team. Two of the best teams in the state, Tulsa and Okmulgee, Henryetta and Weleetka High other three teams will be able to put up a good fight against the local team. The hopes of the Tiger fans are centered on winning the Tulsa game. Tulsa has recently defeated the strong Enid High School team which put away the hitherto unbeatable Oklahoma City High team by a big score. If we succeed in winning from Tulsa our team will rank with the best in the state. Detailed results of this trip will appear in the next issue of the Little Tiger.

WEWOKA 37; FRANCIS 31

Saturday the boys team played Francis there. This game will always be remembered, not because of the game itself, but because of the interest a few of the "well soaked" spectators took in our coach and team after the game was over.

The game started off fine. Our team went good and the score at the end of the first half was 27-11 in our favor.

But in the second half the Francis boys began to score and for once the game was on in earnest. But after a hard fought and rough game the score was 37-31 in our favor.

Wewoka was crippled by the absence of Seran at center but Kiker filled the place well. The work of Barham and Nicholson at farward was good and of course Christain and Miller took care of guard's position. This is our last game with Francis unless we get them at the tournament. "Here' Hoping."

KEEP CHEERING SOMEONE ON

"Don't you mind about the triumphs,

Don't you worry over fame;

Don't you grieve about succeeding.

Let the future guard your name.

All the best in life's the simplest.

Love will last when wealth is gone;

Just be glad that you are living

And keep cheering some one on.

Let your neighbors have the blossoms

Let your comrades wear the crown;

Never mind the little setbacks

Nor the blows that knock you down.

You'll be there when they're forgotten

You'll be glad with youth and dawn,

If you just forget your troubles

And keep cheering some one on.

There's a lot of sorrow round you,

Lots of lonesomeness and tears

Lots of heartaches and of worry

Thru the shadows of the years.

And the world needs more than triumphs,

More than all the swords we've drawn

It is hungering for the fellow

Who keeps cheering others on.

"THE SIXTH VICTORY"

The Wewoka girls went to Weleetka with the expectation of having a hard game as Weleetka had defeated Francis by a score of 18 to 17. But the superior team work of the Wewoka girls and the spectacular play of D. Fraser and Ramage at center proved the superiority of the Wewokaites. The game ended with a score of 33-52. The lineup was as follows: Forwards, Shiflett and Brown, centers D. Fraser and Ramage, guards, J. Fraser and Turman.

Field goals Brown eight, Shiflett thirteen. Free throws Brown one, Shiflett nine.

In the Tecumseh game due credit must be given to the guards who worked incessantly and showed up well beside the strong Tecumseh forwards. In glancing at the score one might think the game was a tight one and in fact it was quite a tight game the last half but the story would have been different had not one of our forwards and both of our centers been on the sick list. In spite of their feelings, however, they fought bravely till the last.

The Pauls Valley score was 23-10 at the end of the first half in favor of Pauls Valley but the valiant sub? team came to the rescue and piled up the score of 10 up to the height of 33, leaving Pauls Valley behind with 27. The centers Ramage and D. Fraser, played an unusually fast game and time after time Dot shot hot ones to the forwards who made the score two more every time they completed a hot pass.

In the Wanette game it is enough said when the score announced 53-0 in our favor, although the forwards Shiflett and Brown are due some special mention for piling up 41 points the first half, while the guards held Wanette forwards to a score of "zero."

The sub team played an unusually fast game the last half and those on the side lines didn't know the first team had been taken out there was so little difference in the playing of the two teams.

Big Ruby shot more goals than Little Ruby owing to the fact that the latter could not see the goal when her guard was in front of her and had to do most of her shooting by guesswork.

This makes nine victories for the Tigers and we are expecting to add two more to our list this week end. We play Sulphur and Tecumseh here Friday and Saturday nights.

WHERE THEY PLAY

Both teams have been "hard hit" by these recent failures in games to materialize. They have not shown quite the class of ball that they were showing a few weeks ago. It is hoped that the schedule will hold good for the remainder of the season, in which case it will not be long before we are back in smooth running order again. The games this week will help much toward getting us back on our stride again. The boys meet the strong Anadarko team, state champions of last year and winners of fifteen "straights" so far this season. Winning this game will place the Tigers in strong running for the state championship.

The girls also have some important games on their schedule. They play the Edmond High School team at Edmond Wednesday night. From there they go to Oklahoma City to meet the Oklahoma City College, formerly Methodist University, team. It will take all the skill and speed that the girls have to keep their record still unbroken this week and add these games to their "string", but when it comes to skill and speed, the girls are "there", and no loyal Tiger has any doubts about the outcome.

Saturday night both teams will be back home for what will more than likely be the last double header of the season. The Seminole girls and the Holdenville boys will be the opposing teams on this date. They will make an exceedingly good attraction as the Seminole girls are now going strong and the Holdenville boys have no team to be despised at all. A record breaking crowd should be in the Armory Hall Saturday night.

On Friday night, February 27th, two

BIG MUSICAL COMING.

The music department of the Wewoka High School is preparing a musical entertainest to be given on March 3. It is our purpose to furnish a very interesting program and we think that it will compete with any number of the Lyceum we have had this year.

The best talent in the school is being used. The musical compositions we are using are humorous, entertaining and classical. It will please you from start to finish and you will go away feeling that you have spent a very profitable evening.

THANKS.

Mrs. Ray Reed recently donated two jars of Apricot marmalade, two jars chow-chow and canned peaches to the Domestic Science cafeteria. She also gave a three-gallon coffee urn to the department.

These things are very much appreciated by the girls of the H. E. C. club especially the coffee urn as our equipment is somewhat stinted on account of the lack of necessary funds.

We take this opportunity to thank Mrs. Reed for same. These few words fall far short of our appreciation.

of the most important games on the schedule will be played. The boys meet the strong Shawnee High School team at Shawnee while the girls are matched against the Francis girls at Francis. It would be hard to pick two more formidable rivals than these two teams. The outcome of these games will be a deciding factor in determining the leaders in the race for District Championship.

BOYS TRIP

Since the last issue of the Little Tiger, many rather important contests have been engaged in by our basket ball teams.

On Tuesday, February 3rd, our boys met the strong Tulsa team on their court. Tulsa has one of the strongest teams in the state, having defeated by decisive scores some of the leading high school teams. This was the first appearance of the Tiger team in such select company and naturally they were a little "shaky". Nevertheless they put up a good game and played their fast opponents to about as close a score as the other teams have held them. The final count was 38-10.

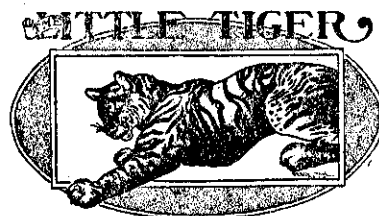

From Tulsa the boys went to Sapulpa, where they proved that they were not in the least downhearted by winning this game handily. The Tigers played the best ball of the trip at Sapulpa. They also report the finest treatment, the best court and other fine things from S. H. S.

On Thursday night the boys moved on down to Okmulgee, where they dropped another fast and well played game. The final score stood 26-37. The wear of the trip was beginning to tell on the boys and they lacked their accustomed "punch" that was all.

Friday the Tigers met the strong Henryetta team at Henryetta. This was a great game, but the Tigers were determined to come home with a majority of their games in the "win" column, so nothing could stop them. They displayed a quality of ball that easily kept them in the lead, the final score standing 20-36.

The final game of the trip was play-

EDITORIAL.

A word of commendation is due the students of W. H. S. Last week while several of our noble teachers were absent on account of illness, the students, or the majority of them, conducted themselves in the most gentlemanly fashion. When a class was left in the study hall unsupervised there was very little commotion. All study went on nicely. And we might mention the seventh and eighth grades also. The eighth grade held a class meeting without a teacher present and all went well. The seventh grade worked diligently at their studies while in the study hall.

The seventh B class that has recently come into the study hall at their study periods have behaved better than the upper classes and high school.

Of course no school can be perfect, so we must say a few words in regard to the cleanliness of study hall and the proper use of library. The floor of the study hall must be kept cleaner. Magazines must be taken back to library when students finish reading them. Leaving them lying on top of desks makes the study hall look very disorderly. Too many are continually going behind library racks without permission thereby keeping the floor littered with paper and magazines scattered on the racks. The students must bear in mind that the library is not the place for them to study or neither is it the place to carry on conversations. Of course the library is to be used but it must be used in the right way.

—ooOoo—

Owing to conflicts with other functions the regular meetings of the literary societies have had to be postponed. This is to be regretted, but the regular programs will again be rendered from now on. Just as we have often found that we never knew how valuable some person was until he had left us, so the students have not realized just what these literary societies have meant to the student body until they have been forced to miss a couple of sessions. The members will return to their work with renewed interest and enthusiasm now.

IT PAYS TO STICK

The world is waiting for the man
Who'll gladly do the best he can;
It has high to pay
To him who is content to stay
Upon the job and labor on Until he knows his work is done.
The world is seeking hard to find
The worker with a cheerful mind;
It wants a youth of pluck and skill
Who'll use his brain and work until
The finished task at last he see
Before he wants to be at ease.

The world has high reward to give
To him who does not live
As one who merely drifts along,
And fears to breast the current strong
It wants a youth of sparkling eye,

Who sees a goal and dares to try,
The world pays well for men of brains
And honest toil and taking pains;
Twill lift above the common lot
Of didn't think and I forgot
The man who, in time of need
Can well be trusted with the deed.
The world is waiting for the man
Who'll look ahead and think and plan
And feel no matter what his boast
That he's where he's needed most;
For such a man there's work to do—
And boy, it might as well be you.—

IT ISN'T YOUR TEAM—IT'S YOU.

If you want to have a Basket Ball team
Like the kind of a team you like,
You needn't slip your clothes in a grip
And start on a long, long hike.
You'll only find what you left behind,
For there's nothing that's really new,
It's a knock at yourself when you knock your team,
It isn't your team—It's you.
Real teams are not made by men

Lest somebody else gets ahead.
When everybody works and nobody shirks
You can raise a team from the dead.
And when you go down to see them play,

A DARK HORSE APPEARS

Followers of basket ball in these parts have always felt since early in the season that the Tiger girls are pretty safely entrenched around the County Championship flag. It now appears that they have some work on their hands, however, for a strong competitor has appeared to dispute the position. The girls from Hazel have been making a remarkable record in their games so far and are now challenging us to combat. The Hazel girls have recently defeated the Konawa High School and the Maud High School by good margins. They won the game from Maud by the one-sided score of 36-1. This score in itself indicates that they have a team of no mean ability; and those who have seen them play say that they display a brand of clean aggressive ball that is hard to beat. A game is being arranged with the Hazel girls for the near future, and all fans are looking forward to a fast, clean game.

CHAPEL EXERCISES

The custom of holding chapel exercises every Monday morning under the auspices of different classes was only begun a few weeks ago, and the experiment is proving a most interesting and instructive one. The seniors, juniors and sophomores have each had their turn, each vying with the other who could best entertain. These weekly programs consist of music, both instrumental and vocal, readings, recitations, etc. Other classes will render weekly programs from time to time, and at the conclusion of the term, or a stated period, a winner may be announced. Three previous programs are herewith given in full:

ed at Weleetka. This was another spirited contest in which superior skill and greater determination won. This brot the team home with three victories out of five to their credit, which is quite a remarkable record considering the length of the trip and the class of teams played. This was the longest trip ever made by a basket ball team from Wewoka. The boys deserve all praise that has been theirs for the record. They won the respect of every place in which they played, and our team will enter the district tournament, backed stronger than ever by their supporters and respected and feared by their opponents.

Those who made the trip were: Capt. Seran, Barham, Nicholson, Christian, Miller, Rogers, Long, Walker, and Kiker. Mr. Riggins "Chaperoned."

Still another scalp was added to our long string Friday night when the boys took the measure of the Oklahoma Catholic University team, by the one-sided score of 52-7. Superior dash and skill in the finer points of the game were responsible for the victory. Almost every member of the Tiger squad got to take a hand in the fray before the final whistle blew. The boys were scheduled to play in Tecumseh and McLoud on this last week end but the games were called off because of the flu, and the Catholic University game was arranged as a substitute.

The girls have been having hard luck with their games also. The Sulphur and Tecumseh games, scheduled to be played on February 6th and 7th, here, were called off too late for a substitute game to be aranged. A sort of practice game was finally worked up, tho, with the town, or Ex-Tiger team. This proved to be quite an exciting contest, but the high school girls proved their worth by piling up the score to a good margin. Tribute must be paid to the fine spirit shown by the young ladies of Wewoka for their willingness to participate in the game, and for the game fighting spirit which they displayed. Bass and Douglas as forwards for the High School did great work and showed the value to a team of having reserves that can be relied upon when the regulars go astray.

GUESS WHO?

Come dear friend, and raise the blinds

And name the guy within these lines,
Long and slim, an athlete vim
And on his face a cheery grin;
He's ready to do—lends a willing hand,
And in helping the ladies—he takes his stand
His hair is dark—his eyes the same.
He's a winner true at any game.
He' about the height of our friend Joe,
In study hall, they take the same row.
Now think again, and bye and bye
This name we're sure you can supply

Wewoka Wins County and District Meets

Outclassed By Tigers, But Opponents are Good Losers

The county track meet, held here on the 8th, 9th and 10th of April, was a grand success for the local High School, although it seemed as if unfavorable weather conditions would doom it to failure, the first day.

Many Basket Ball and Baseball teams competed in the county tournament which added to the excitement of the occasion. The rural schools, especially were well represented in Basket Ball and Friday was a thrilling day for them. Volley Ball and Tennis games also were played on Friday. Saturday was the eagerly awaited day of track and field contests, and a large crowd of people from all over the county witnessed these sports.

The excellent manner in which the visitors were taken care of by loyal citizens of the town is a compliment to their generosity and public spiritedness.

Everything possible was done for the comfort and convenience of our guests and for the making of this meet the most successful ever held in this county. We desire to express our thanks to everyone concerned in helping us make this meet the success it was.

In the Basket Ball tournament of Class I. and II., W. H. S. won first.

In the Baseball tournament of Class I., Mekuskey won first; in Class II., W. H. S. won first. In the Volley Ball tournament, Seminole won first in Class I. B and II. B, girls; W. H. S. won first in I. B and II. B boys. In Tennis, W. H. S. won first. In Class III. Boys Basket Ball tournament, Butner won first.

In the track and field events Wewoka won first in Classes I. and II. In Class III. Butner won first place.

The Musical and Literary contests were held Friday and Saturday nights before an immense congregation. In these contests W. H. S. won first in Classes I. and II. and Butner first in Class III.

The total scores of the meet are as follows:

Class I.

W. H. S. Takes Dual Track Meet From Henryetta

On Friday evening, April 23rd, the fast Henryetta Track Team visited the abode of the Tigers for a dual meet. This proved to be one of the most exciting meets of the season and all events were closely contested. It was hard to tell which school would win for a long time. In fact there was no certainty of which side the victory was going to until the last event was over.

Then the final score showed that W. H. S. had won by a margin of 5 points, the locals having 57 points to their credit and the Henryetta lads 52.

FINISHING UP THE RACE

"It's the horse that finishes a neck ahead that wins the race." True it is, but we are afraid some of W. H. S. students are not going to finish a neck ahead this spring. This is especially noticed on the part of the Track boys. Just because we have won county and district honors, it isn't yet time to be a quitter. Some of us seem to make loafing our main occupation now—Many excuses are given: "I haven't the time," or "I have something else to do more important", or "I must work," and a few minutes later we are seen loafing on the tennis ground, down town, or elsewhere. Just when the warm days should fill us with vigor and vitality, we begin to lag and let the spring fever attack us. Just another weeks training and we can get ourselves in trim for winning state honors if we only get it in us to finish up the race. Let us not be quitters the last minute when a little more effort will bring us out victorious.

The listless attitude is noticed not only in the track boys; it is noticed in the majority of the other students in their work. We should all take enough interest in our high school to continue our work up thru the very last day of school. Some of us feel that since school is nearly over we might as well take it easy. We should put forth our efforts and get all there is to get out of these last few weeks of school.

We find it hard to concentrate; the sunshine seems to lure us from our lessons and school life loses all its joy, but remember we are starting out on the last lap for the finish. In this last stretch everything that has been left undone must be checked up. Let us maintain that old standard of being a hard fighting, determined bunch and pull thru. We must sum up our last ounce of energy and come over the line with a large margin.

COMMENCEMENT COMING ALSO HOME TALENT PLAYS

The time that is always looked forward to with much anticipation—the end of the school session, and commencement week is near at hand.

The Senior class is proudly thinking of their graduation exercises and their program recently planned, to which they are devoting much time, in the effort to make it the best program in the history of W. H. S.

The class is composed of eleven of the most competent entertainers in W. H. S., so it is safe to say the program will be a winner.

Rudolph Hill, of course, is valedictorian as has been expected since the year "one" though the salutation was only a short distance behind him.

The Seniors are not only looking forward to the commencement week but also to the Junior-Senior Banquet, which will be "pulled off" soon (we hope.)

The wide awake Junior class superintended a box supper previous to this date from which they cleared the expense of the banquet. This is what we know it is coming (we think).

W. H. S. is also working on two more home talent plays, one of which has a line of characters composed of boys only. This ought to be a clever play as such clever material is used in its production.

The "Mighty Sex" of W. H. S. usually makes a hit. Come out and give them a chance.

The other play will also be worth your money and time.

The Camp Fire girls are also working on a program entitled: "The Garden of Laughs." This program will be entirely different from any other program given by W. H. S. students this session.

If fun is what you want buy a ticket to the "Garden of Laughs"—Date will be announced later.

TO WHOM DOES THE CREDIT GO?

All our musical organizations have won either the county or district meet or both, but to whom does the credit go? No all to ourselves, but to Miss Howard, our instructor. Thanks are certainly due to her for her unceasing efforts to help develop the musical talents of W. H. S.

Miss Howard, in spite of her duties in her class room has devoted every minute of her spare time in helping W. H. S. win our honors and the whole school is indebted to her. Thanks must also be given to Jenny who has been the accompanist of all musicals. She has helped to better the music side of W. H. S.

THANKS

Due credit must be given to Miss Pieter and Dorothy in serving as directors in Miss Howard's place, to them each member of the Glee Clubs extend their thanks.

WITH THE CLASSES

Our famous public speaking class, which consists of ten boys and two girls, are working on original orations. More talents that have been hidden will probably be brought out in this kind of work. Some of the subjects already chosen are: "Wilson and his work", "The Goal of the Twentieth Century", "Americanism in Schools", "Life of Roosevelt", and Patrick Henry."

The Agriculture class has completed their text book and are working on gardens. Four hours a week must be spent on our gardens. My! we will be good gardeners some day.

The Spanish class with Rudolph substituting in Miss Howard's place is progressing nicely. Everyone is taking the same interest as if Miss Howard were here.

JOKES.

Her Mother—Jessie, did that young man smoke in the parlor last night? I found matches there.

Jessie—Oh, no. He just lit a match to see what time it was.

Miss Finney—How did you find that steak?

Mr. Longwith—Oh, quite accidentally. I moved that piece of potatoe and there it was, underneath.

Ruth was surveying herself in the mirror, "I wonder how many men will be miserable when I marry?" she mused.

"That all depends on how many men you intend to marry," rejoined her sister.

First Horse—Do you prefer your meals a la cart or table d'oat?

Second Horse—It makes no difference to me if I get my hay a la mowed.

A student who could not sound the letter "R" was given the following sentence to read: "Robert gave Richard a rap in the ribs for cooking the rabbit so rare." He studied in silence a minute, then glibly rendered it as follows: "Bobby gave Dickey a thump in the slats for cooking the bunny so little."

Traffic Cop—"Come on! What's the matter with you?"

Truck Driver—"I'm well, thanks, but me engine's dead."

Miss Howard has been out of school the past two weeks on account of sickness. Here's hoping we'll soon have her back with us again.

Sterline and Dorothy have been teaching this week, surstituting for Miss Howard.

Miss Era Shifett spent the weekend at her country home.

Miss Ruby Bass attended the wedding of her sister, in Tulsa Saturday.

Opal Casey and Charlie Miller visited with relatives and friends in Sasakwa Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. J. C. Maxwell, commonly known to the students as Francis, visited chapel Monday.

Opal Casey was absent from school Wednesday owing to her illness.

H. E. C. NOTES.

During the annual county Track Meet there was over one hundred garments on display in the Domestic Science department as proof of what the Domestic art classes of Wewoka schools have been doing.

It was the most elaborate display in the history of the Home Economics club.

The articles were judged and silver thimbles were awarded the winners.

Lillie Streeter, Helen Kennerly and Plumer Fullerton are now the proud possessors of the silver thimbles.

The Domestic Science class also showed its liveliness and ableness by furnishing and running, cold drinks, ice cream, and sandwich stands during the meet, from which they cleared near $100.00 which was used to pay the expense of our contestants who went to the Ada District Tournament, and brought home four large loving cups.

Due credit must be given to Mr. Longwith and his Manual Training class who assisted the girls in many ways, such as setting up the stands, lifting heavy loads, running errands, etc.

BOYS GLEE CLUB WINS
ALSO MIXED CHORUS

Our Boys Glee Club and Mixed Chorus won the county and district meets. These boys feel as if they have been paid for their strenuous practicing. How well we know that it is more fun to get out in the inviting spring air and play ball than it is to practice and enter into something we have never entered before. However, our boys and girls had it in them to win. We are proud of them. Preparations are now being made to enter the Glee Club in the State Meet at Norman. Here's to them.

fifty or sixty of our representatives that went on this trip and all enjoyed themselves in true "Tiger" style. They were out to win and the results of the fray shows that they did win in spite of the fact that some of the best athletes and songsters in the state competed against them. Our Boys Chorus and also our Mixed Chorus won first places.

The Girls Chorus deserve honorable mention for their efforts although they did not place in the contest; there being five other choruses competing against them. We also won first place in the Grammar School Reading, Stella Marie Hefley having thus won this contest twice. Then too, we won first in the High School Declamation.

The most exciting part of the program came on Saturday. In the morning our Girls Basket Ball team convinced the team from Sulphur that our title of "State Champs" was not to be disputed. The final score stood 37 to 22 in favor of Wewoka and we had won the district championship. The track and field contests occurred that afternoon. A great number of the best athletes in this part of the state had assembled to compete against each other and it seemed as if the chance of W. H. S. to win was very slim. However, our athletes were nothing daunted and at the end of the contest they came out victorious. The results of the track and field meet so far as concerns us are as follows:

Hugh Barham won first place in the half mile and the quarter mile, setting a new district record for each one. His time in the half mile was 2:12; the former record being 2:14. In the quarter mile his time was 56; the former record being 57. Hugh also won second place in the 100 yard dash.

John Campbell won first place in the Javelin throw, and third place in the mile, having set a new record in the former. He threw the Javelin 139 ft. and 9 in.; the former record being 125 ft. and 2 in.

John Long won second place in the High Hurdles and also in the Low Hurdles and Earl Seran won second place in the Discus throw.

In the Tennis tournaments Earl Seran and B. B. Christian won first place in the Boys doubles and Clara Ramage and Lois Kiker won first place in the Girls doubles. Lois also won first place in the Girls singles.

The result of the track contests found W. H. S. in first place with a total of 33 points scored. Canyon Springs was our closest opponent, they having 25 points to their credit.

The winning of this meet places W. H. S. in a good position for winning the State track meet which is to be held at Norman on the 29th and 30th of April and 1st of May. Last year with a very small representation we won sixth place in this meet. This year with a larger and stronger track team than we have ever had before we believe that we can win this meet. Look out for results!
