

someone comes and helps you out that you might continue or give you an encouraging word and not always financially, but sometimes you have to have a good thought and a good will of people to continue. Long as you have that, it seems like that you are always going to have an organization, and so we will conclude this tape at this time.

(End of Interview--End of Tape)