

Morris School house.

(Well.)

CEMETERIES - LOCATION AND PEOPLE WHO ARE BURIED THERE.

That's the old original Musgrove place though. But it turned out to-- the Morris' got hold of it after the Musgrove family got--

(Some of Will Roger's folks?)

Grandparents, some kin.

(Yeah.)

But I don't know the Musgroves, the Rogers and the McSpaddens are all kind some way or another.

(Yeah. But that right up there is where some of their folks are buried.

But they didn't have any markers in those days?)

No. markers. There ain't a marker there. Never was. But that old graveyard up in the filed here.

(Yeah, that's a pretty stone school house for a school.)

Yeah, it was built by the W.P.A.

(Yeah.)

Back in the '30's. Built a well.

(Yeah.)

Boy (words not clear) building. That's a nice building.

(That's a nice building. Course they haven't used it in along time though, have they?)

Lights broke out, you know. (sentence not clear).

(This is the old Bushyhead place, isn't it?)

Yeah, that one over yonder--north of there-church house. That sure is old.

(This sure is an old time place.)

Yeah, this here is the Morris place but they--don't look like anyone lives there.
