

himself a butane. So..these circumstances change or mama moves in with them and mama's always been by a wood heater. And she wants one and then here they come. So I just throw this out. Now if ya'll want to do it selectively, fine.

(Conversation, small group.)

Leader: Right they will be insured. We will insist that it's insured.

(Participant, man:) Labor isn't bound in anyway by the Secretary of Labor. On this job?

Leader: Right when they get that project site, yes.

(There is some discussion here between a participant and the meeting leader.)

Leader: Yes, labor is right near where we're working on that site. We're working under (not clear)

(Participant, man:) Mutual help?

Leader: Yessir. Not..not..not..not the participants but my men are.

(Participant, man:) I know that but your men are.

Leader: On the site, not up at our plant.

(Participant, man:) Yeah. Yeah but those participants will be paid (not clear) scales for their work. Right?

Leader: Uh. Uh. I don't know. I don't know. I don't know.

(Participant, man:) Well, if you're bound by the law you are? You said, you were bound by the law.

Leader: Well, in the original concept, if you'll go back. Ray McGuire and some of the other men way back.

(A participant makes a comment.)

Leader: Uh..well they stated then that the participant would receive about sixty percent of the (not clear) rate. Uh, I think Mac says now roughly fifty. But this..this is on the developer's back, in other words he has got to certify after he gets just a little bit of work done
