

we have in the past.

Mr. Clement: Turnkey.

(Participant, man:) Well uh conventional and the low rent.

(Participant, lady:) Conventional and low rent.

Mr. Clement: Conventional and the low rent. Well, show the new construction here. Non-turnkey would be the conventional. And then you'll have to show down here under other, mutual help. The number again then show the total and the number of elderly and non-elderly for each category on there that you have. Did he say a hundred and thirty units?

(Participant, lady:) A hundred and twenty-five. Mutual help. Fifty low rent

(Participant, man:) Now we won't get what we've already got (not clear) program reservation for here anyway. That's just what we're asking for right now?

Mr. Clement: Yeah.

(Participant, man:) That's what this application is for.

Mr. Clement: Now let me ask what what do you have uh in development right now uh..

(Participant, lady:) We're starting on our first twenty is that what you mean?

Mr. Clement: You have twenty?

(Participant, man:) That's what we..

(Participant, lady:) Twenty. Low rent. How about the low rent?

(Participant, man:) No, we don't have that. Just mutual help.

(Participant, lady:) Twenty.

Mr. Clement: Okay. Now of course the mutual help is all, all non-elderly.

But in the conventional low rent you are you planning on asking for some elderly only and..

(Participant, lady:) Um-hum. Twenty-five. Yeah, twenty-five percent.

Mr. Clement: Twenty-five percent elderly.

(Participant, lady:) Of the fifty that we're asking for..
