

nation when they build that Indian reservation south of Stilwell.

(Yeah.)

Well, there was lot of work sectionizing that reservation.

(Well.)

We had lot of work but required us to go through examination to see if we were able to work.

(Yes.)

Well, they turn me down every time. I've still got my old social security card. I never did use it, only carry it around, present it when I was called to show it.

(Hum.)

Well, I signed up for about four or five years. I just got action just the other day--old age on top of my original veterans.

(Yeah.)

VETERANS BEFORE WORLD WAR I

I don't believe I know a veteran that's living. I believe 1898 is when that all was settled.

(Yeah.)

There's just a few of them living.

(Hum. How did it get started? Do you know? Or how was it named? That's an unusual name, Peavine (referring to cemetery).)

It was--the original was Reece.

(Reece.)

Reece Cemetery.

(Hum.)

But that Peavine--no, I can't---

(Was that an old Indian man, Peavine?)
