

SAW MANY INDIANS AT THE CELEBRATION

(So then this was the first time, did you meet Indians at the celebration or--)

Well I saw them. Yes. There was a lot of them there in Kaw.

(How did they dress then?)

They wore the blankets. In the summer time they wore sheets for their blankets.

(They wear the--)

Course they had citizen clothes under them. But they had their blankets.

(Everything was regular citizen clothes but the blankets, but they added the blankets just like the old days?)

Yes. Uh-huh. I've got a lot of pictures upstairs. Didn't you ever see them, Indians?

(I must have missed them. No, I haven't seen them.)

They're in a box.

(We'll get those out one of these days.)

Yes.

(And look those over.)

And I know ever one of them.

EARLY DAY INDIANS DRESS CUSTOMS - HAIR STYLE

(Oh, good we've got to get the identification down. So the Kaws just dressed like everybody else then by the time you got to know the Indians?)

Yes. Oh they was some, few of them dressed in Indian clothes all time.

(Well those few that dressed in the old style how did their dress differ?)

They wore leggings.

(Leggings and the breech cloth clout and all that.)

Uh-hum.

And shirts.

(Did they have any special hair styles or--?)

They usually wore their hair long and braided. Wore braids. Did you ever see
