

(static--children in background--words not clear)

(Yeah..)

Come to singing and get the medicine.

(Yeah, well, that Indian medicine is good now, I know.)

Well, that's all we had.

(That's right. That's all they had.)

* There wasn't no doctors.

(No doctors, no. And they cured just about anything.)

Oh, yeah.

(Them folks do. They know what to get.)

The one they call consumption.

(Yeah.)

They used some kind of a root, you know, and they make tea out of it, you know. They call it T.B. now, don't they?

(Yeah.)

Some things, they call all kinds of names. Couldn't understand some of them. Don't know what it is.

(That's right.)

I don't guess even doctor knows anything about it.

(I don't think so.)

They named it.

OLD CEMETERIES

(The old time cemeteries, where were they, Mr. Chewey?)

Way down river what they call Bullfrog place.

(Bullfrog place.)

Ned Bullfrog.
