

It was post office too.

(Was it really oil spring?)

Yeah.

(Oil came out, huh?)

Yeah.

(Well.)

About this time, a whole bunch of people come there. Some from Arkansas somewhere--they all camp up there two or three weeks to get the medicine.

(Yeah.)

Water good medicine.

(Well.)

Camp over there.

(Yeah.)

Two or three weeks at a time.

(Hmmm.)

It was good medicine then. Still springs there.

(Yeah. What kind of oil was it? Was it black oil or white?)

Black, yeah.

(Black oil. Well, did you ever have sulphur springs anywhere or salt springs in this country?)

No, not this country, over here at Salina.

(Salina, yeah. Is that oil springs--is it still down there?)

Uh-huh, yeah, still down there.

MODE OF TRAVEL IN EARLY DAYS

(Long time ago, did they have stage coach go through the country?)

No, not that I know of.

(No, no, stage coach.)
