

(Conversation, persuasion to get little boy to sing nursery rhyme.)

My grandmother used to sing that and stomp her feet. And, boy, we all dashed to her and jump on her. That was awful. Yeah, she stomped her feet. Come in the house and all the kids get quiet. They never made any more noise. We go right off to sleep.

(Conversation, persuasion to get John Paul and Lamar to sing.)

END OF SIDE A

(Did you ever know Grandfather Kickingbird?)

Oh, I did and I know your aunt in the city.

(I just wondered if you...)

(Persuasion to get John Paul to sing.)

(Is this a different one?)

Yeah, it's a different one.

(What's it about?)

LUCILLE SINGS A SONG ABOUT A LITTLE CALF

It's about a calf, little calf.

(Lucille sings song.)

(What does it tell about the little calf?)

I'm bringing a calf. I'm bringing a calf. I'm going to bring it to my grandmother and let grandmother get hold of it's ears and throw it down the hill and kill it. And I'm going to bring her all the meat and let her.

(Sentence not clear). Feed the tribe (Carl)

And let her cook it. And let her cook it tender 'cause old Indians don't have no teeth. They just suck on. (Laughter) She'll cook and she'll eat it and she'll grow strong. Cause these Indians don't have no teeth at that age. She could kill calves for her, real, old, old people.
