

the Great Power that created people in the first beginning. That's the way the Indian got here. Some of them, why, they come from somewhere else (words not clear).

(No, they didn't. They're right here.)

They couldn't wade that damned ocean over there. They never had no boats to cross it. How in the hell would they get over here? They didn't have no way to get here. — I said them Indians was created right here where as the rest of the people was created over this world. Every nation of people was created right there.

(Right.)

That's their nation and their country.

(Oh, it's different now.)

Oh, god, yes.

(static--words not clear)

Joe Cookson's boys.

(Yeah.)

COOKSON HILLS - OUTLAWS

(Those Cookson Hills, was that named after old man Cookson?)

Yeah, old man Joe.

(He lived down in there somewhere, I think.)

Yeah, he lived there nearly all his life. Joe Cookson, Andy Cookson, Levi, they lived down there. They're old man Jack's boys.

(Yeah.)

They had worlds of cattle too. Had lots of cattle. But they wasn't full-blood Indian.

(Yeah.)

They was just half-Indian, but they was smart people.
