

name was on there. I guess the Bureau check them off as they die.

(Then you didn't ever know Lump Forehead yourself?)

I didn't know her myself. Just by hearing them, you know.

(What about Sleeping Wolf--did you know him?)

I didn't know him. But I know his brothers.

(Sitting Bull and Arrow?)

Yeah. Arrow.

(Didn't you tell me last time that your mother died when you were about thirteen?)

Yeah. When I was thirteen.

(Then who did you live with?)

I lived with my grandmother for a while.

(Which one?)

This Punkin. The other one was already gone.

(Oh--Woman-Showing-Up was gone?)

Um-hum.

(What about your father--?)

Let's see. He used to work over here. And then he come down-- After I got married why he'd come and stay with me a while. Nineteen-fourteen he got sick. And I took care of him until he died. I didn't know very much, but I try to take care of my father. Dr. Howard used to come around there and treat him and I had him in a little tent. He was living with another woman, but you know how they are. She was going with another man. He used to be by himself in that little pink tent and my husband would take my two kids-- two of my oldest kids while I go in and take care of him-- And he had a cousin by the name of Dan Tucker. He used to come over there and relieve me.

He used to tell me, "I'll sit with him"-- (unintelligible phrase).

(Did you have any half brothers or sisters?)
