

Unidentified Voice: And supper, said I always had corn bread or corn on the cob.

(Yeah.)

Just use hot boiling hot water, didn't they to make corn bread.

Unidentified Voice: And that there corn bread, you use egg and shortening, sugar and baking powder.

That's what Hooley don't like. My oldest boy's name Hooley. (laughter)

MORE ABOUT FAMILY MEMBERS

(Hooley.)

His grandfather named him after Hooley Bell, you know, they said there used to be a Hooley Bell in Vinita.

(Hooley Bell.)

And my other boy his name is Johnson.

(Johnson?)

He lives in Tahlequah, and Louise is there too. She works at the city hospital. She's been working up there (not clear). I thought lots of Ruth, she was always good to me when I was in the hospital.

(Yeah.)

(Not clear) had one of those big feather hats. He wore that.

Unidentified Voice: I don't know. Indians don't wear that jewelry, you know, them Indian jewelry they call it.

(Yeah.)

Unidentified Voice: I don't know why--

(Even the women don't wear any.)

Here's one Indian that loves to put jewelry on. (Laughter)

(Most women, you know, they like a little bit of jewelry.)

Mr. Gourd: Never did show it to an Indian.

(Maybe.)
