

No that was your grandma Timmons, her name was Muskgraves. Your grandma Timmons was a Muskgraves.

(She was a Muskgrave.)

Her name was Martha.

(Martha Muskgrave.)

But her other was the Indian of it. But --

(I bet he could tell me if I'd go over and talk to him, couldn't he?)

Oh, he could tell you lots of things, poor old fellow.

MATTIE AND BOYCE DECIDE TO GO VISIT UNCLE BEN HARTNESS

(Think we ought to drive over there today? Could you stand it?)

Yeah I can stand anything.

(I think we could go over there and see him.)

My bowels have been pretty good.

(We can stand on the road and you can get behind a tree.)

I won't have to go.

(You've done that before haven't you?)

I don't think I'll have to go at all.

(Well --)

Oh, yes I went behind--I stopped and got out down here one time. That ain't on, is it?

(No, I'll turn it off.)

I got out down here, me and Billy went riding down here one day and I got out and --

(Billy Hudson?)

Yeah. We went out and was going up north to Leason. I said, "I've got to get out here." And we looked out and there was a great big old bobcat sitting right out there --
