

Announcer: Ladies and gentlemen, in the past I would like--they have also been honored by our good friend General Brown and (not clear) personnel at Ft. Sill, (not clear) the most events are taking place here in observance of--(rest of sentence not clear). --one of those experiences and tradition with the most distinguished people in the world today, the leaders (rest not clear).

Kaubin: At this time, ladies and gentlemen, General Brown.

General Brown: Ladies and gentlemen, it is my pleasure to be here today. And so, since my visit has to be short, I would like to pay a special tribute to the senior gentlemen (much noise in background). We are proud again of our neighbors here and proud to be a part of Southwestern Oklahoma and we are proud that we have been invited out today and I am most grateful for the gift that has been given to me. We hope you have a very enjoyable celebration and thanks for having me and I look forward to other occasions throughout the year, particularly in October, when so many of you will be--we are going to celebrate then out at Camp Eagle. Thank you very much for having me. (Applause.)

(The next man talking is not clear enough to understand. They are going to dedicate another song to someone I could not hear well enough to get the name. More music for about 10 minutes.)

Kaubin: That's it for this morning. Everybody go to your camps and eat a good hearty dinner and then you'll be ready to go again this afternoon. Thank you for coming out and having a part in this special program, which will be put on the WKY news cast sometime this evening, I believe. Thos of you that--

(This is the end of the special program at Tia Piah Society Dance ground at Medicine Park. This is the special program put on for General Brown of the, Ft. Sill Military Post. He's the Commanding General and this is part of their celebration.

(End of Side A.)
