

That knows anything.

(Yeah)

Some of these don't remember too much.

(What are the other old cemeteries in this your community around here?)

Well, there's one back over here called Drum Spring. They used that cemetery there. Its pretty good size cemetery. Then there's another one back over here called Fields cemetery.

(Fields)

Yeah. I can't understand that either because they used to call that Jack Dawson.

(Well.)

There's an old nigger lived over there (words not clear) by the name of Field. That-- Its kept up.. Its in pretty good shape.

(Is that the one where quite a few of the Shoemakes are buried?)

I believe that's right.

(I've heard it someplace over in there.)

Yeah that's--I guess that's--you're right. (Static on tape) Another one called Possum Holler.

(Yeah)

EARLY DAY PEOPLE AND WORKING CONDITIONS

Lots Indians was in there. It went something like that. But not many. But they got out of here and them Sundays and that bunch lived right around the corner. But I can't understand, hardly. I was over at Tahlequah here while back. Went out to where they weave those blankets.

(Yeah.)

(static)

Went to the house and they told me how I could fix it up and wear it. (words not clear) There was a blonde-headed gal. And she called her husband to
