

looked like he was more feeble--on the other side. And they were both in the pipe ceremony. You know, during the day when they'd bring the pipes--light the pipes and bring the pipes in. But I never did get their names.)

Benny--Benny Goggles--

(I don't believe it was Benny because I remember having Benny pointed out to me. I remember which one he was: Now he was doing a lot in there, too. He wasn't one of the ones that was holding those pipes. But would it be correct to call Benny a priest?)

Um-hum. He's a high priest.

(And Whitey? Is he--?)

He's a high priest.

(And Adam Shakespeare--could you call him a high priest--?)

He's the high priest of that pipe. High Priest in that Sun Dance.

(And then your niece, Josephine, is--)

She's a high priestess.

(How did she get to this position?)

She earned it. She fasted so many times--I don't know. She's a high priestess in that pipe ceremony and in that Sun Dance. And then she's in that spiritual ceremony--that spiritual sweat ceremony. Just about everything they got there on that reservation. She's a high priestess.

SWEAT LODGE CEREMONY

(What is this spiritual sweat ceremony?)

Well, you seen these sweat lodges? You see them around here (Oklahoma), and they just sweat. But up there (Wyoming) they got them spiritual lodges.

There's a certain way they put them up and a certain way they use them rocks--
