

CONDUCT OF MAN WHO VOWS SUN DANCE; IMPORTANCE OF COMPLETING VOW

(You were telling me about how much it costs to put on that Sun Dance. Does it cost any more for someone that's putting it on, like Victor or Crawford?)
Yeah, it costs them more. But the ordinary dancer--it costs them about $500.00.

(How would Crawford have to pay more--what would his extra expenses be?)
He's got more involved, him and Victor.

Rosie Pedro: The person who makes that vow, he's got to live it until he gets through it.

(How long would it be from the time he makes the vow until he gets through with it?)

Well, when he went in the service. When he knew he was going overseas the first time.

(So it would be over a year, then?)

Oh, gosh. I think he spent 36 month across. See, he went overseas and he come back, and he went back overseas again. Then he's been in the states about a year, isn't it?

(He's through with his overseas duty?)

Yeah, he out, now. Out of the service.

(You were saying he has to live that kind of a life. What kind of a life...?)

You got to just be just so, so people can respect you. You got to be a respectable person from the time you make that vow until you get through.

They had a hard time with Crawford because he was in the armed forces.

Sometimes those armed forces boys, you know, they get in the wrong crowd, and get messed up and this and that. Of course he was in there and he got in the wrong crowd and they had a time with him. When he got back from overseas he was in and out of the stockade. He's out of the service now with an honorable
