

Vacation. When home Christmas too, Only time we go home, Christmas. Then when I get home, sure hate to go back.

(Did your mom and dad come up and see you?)

Yea, they always come up and get me. They come see me once in a while. Take me in town Saturday, when they come in a wagon.

(How did they teach you English?)

Teach just like they do now, books they got books. Well just like we got to write write things on the blackboard. That's where I got my start.

(How long did it take before you could talk English?)

Took me a long time before I start learning. When I start learning I talk pretty good English. I think about it sometimes. Just how it went. I had a hard time. I think about it sometime, myself. Oh, it was painful. I didn't know a word of English. See my parents didn't know nothing about English, you know. Talk Indian all the time. So therefore, I just..but after I learn, I went on and learn and talk.

(What kinds of subjects did you study in school?)

Well, after you get up to fourth grade, the older ones, sometimes you study books. After then, they got geography, study that. After we get through with books like that, they come down with Bible. No, I didn't go that high, to get to that Bible. I went to about third grade down there.

(Were you speaking English good then?)

Not too good. Well, like that..I don't remember how long I went there. I went there several years, but I got to where I got to learn to talk English pretty good. Wasn't extra good. If I was like I was now, I don't know. Wouldn't be able to talk to you.

(Where'd you go after Cache Creek?)

I went to public school then. Out west of Fort Cobb. Yea, I went down there. Well I went there, then after I quit that public school the folks brought me down here at this Catholic school. I went up here about two years. I went public school about couple years. At this Catholic School, just like boarding school. West of
