

never did go back around them teachers.

(Did the Indian kids in those days have to go to school?)

Well, yea. They had to go to school, unless the parents makes them go, they have to go. Never heard of truant officers in them days.

(Did most of the Indian kids go to school in those days?)

Yea.

(Did Connie Maw (Fred's sister) go to school?)

Yea, but I don't know where she went to school. Yea, she went to school, but I don't know where. She claims she went down here to the Catholic School. But I don't know how long, or when. She was going to school before I was. I don't know, she quit, got married. I was too young to know anything about her. All what I remember when she got married, she's always around Cache Creek. Once and a while in town.
