

T-5-2 (Second of Three Interviews)

JOEL HOGUE, NON-INDIAN

INTERVIEWED BY: BILL SAVAGE

INTERVIEW DATE: JUNE 7, 1967

TRANSCRIBED BY: MARY HAIR

GENERAL SUBJECT: FARMING NEAR PRESENT SITE OF CARNEGIE, OKLAHOMA;
CIRCA 1901

TOPICS DISCUSSED:

REGISTRATION FOR DRAWING AT EL RENO, 1901
PROBLEMS OF LOCATING LAND
ABSENCE OF INDIANS AROUND CARNEGIE, CIRCA 1901
FARMING METHODS AND CROPS
TEACHING SCHOOL NEAR CARNEGIE, 1903

BACKGROUND OF INFORMANT:

Joel S. Hogue received his land for his homestead in 1901, near Carnegie. He lived in an 8 x 10 "shack" for some time before building his home. He taught school for three years, since he was a high school graduate and had one year of business college. He has been a farmer and rancher and worked for a co-operative firm in Carnegie for seven years. He is now retired. Mr. Hogue is about 82 years of age.

Note: The other interviews on this tape are: B. W. Jolly, Non-Indian
Bessie Basset Wilton, Non-Indian