

T-51
MOLLY YEAGER, SEMINOLE
SISSY FENTON, SEMINOLE
INTERVIEWED BY: ROBERT L. MILLER
INTERVIEW DATE: MAY 10, 1967
TRANSCRIBED BY: MONETTE COOMBS

GENERAL SUBJECT: EARLY DAYS IN SEMINOLE NATION; EARLY DAY
RESIDENTS; CUSTOMS; PUNISHMENT FOR CRIMES

TOPICS DISCUSSED:

BRIEF INTRODUCTION
RAISED BY DYMOND FAMILY
WENT TO EMAHAKA MISSION BOARDING SCHOOL
EARLY DAY FAMILIES NAMES
SCRIPT MONEY
EARLY DAYS - BED MADE OF SPLIT LOGS
DUTIES OF LIGHTHORSEMAN
DIFFERENT PUNISHMENT FOR CRIMES
EXECUTION TREE AND WHIPPING TREE
FOOD IN EARLY DAYS
RELIGIOUS BELIEFS
MRS. FENTON IS GRANDDAUGHTER OF JOHN JUMPER

BACKGROUND OF INFORMANT:

Molly Yeager is 87 years of age. She lives in Seminole, Oklahoma where she has lived all of her life. She went to school at Emahaka Mission School.

Sissy Fenton is 82 years of age and is the granddaughter of a former Seminole Chief, John Jumper