

Mrs. Fenton: Nothing. Just follow my grandpa. Just here and yonder. When he go to Sunday School, I goes with him.

(Well, he was a minister too wasn't he? A Pastor of the Church there at Sasakawa. Well, he was the founder of that church?)

Mrs. Fenton: Yes.

(Well did your grandfather tell you anything about the old times and about life before the Civil War, or immediately after the Civil War?)

Mrs. Fenton: No, in that time they don't fool with the young people caring so much about the whole thing like that.
