

(Yeah.)

Beans.

Third male voice: Kanutchi.

(Squash - static)

Squash and make bread out of it. After while we couldn't even find any. For some - they up too old.

(Yeah.)

There's--well that (sentence not clear). What is it? White, over northeast of Dewey. He had some. I don't remember--

Lady's voice: Tyners. Those Tyners--

(tape skip)

DELAWARE MEETING GROUNDS

(The old Delaware meeting grounds, the stompground, is that always been up here?)

No. Used to be over west.

(Oh--)

Over west, northwest of Copan, over there. Used to be a church over there, church house. That's finally deteriorated, you know, fell down. People just carried that stuff off. First one there. Not even there anymore.

(Now the stomp grounds they use nowadays is up here though, isn't it?)

Yeah. That's what we use up here.

(Yeah.)

They used to have'em--well we used to have one over here. Used to be one west of Copan.

(Yeah.)

Used to be one right north and west of Dewey. Post Oak here.

(Well.)

Had stomp dances there for a long time. (words not clear).
